RBI KEEPS INTEREST RATES UNCHANGED

The RBI on Thursday left its key interest rates unchanged for a third straight meeting, but signalled tighter policy if food prices continue to drive inflation higher. The monetary policy committee held the benchmark repurchase rate at 6.50% in a unanimous decision. It retained the stance on "withdrawal of accommodation" but Governor Shaktikanta Das sounded hawkish when he highlighted that headline inflation needs to subside sustainably below 4% | P15

● DEFEATS NO-TRUST MOTION BY VOICE VOTE ● SAYS NDA WILL WIN 2024 POLLS ● CALLS OPPN'S ALLIANCE 'GHAMANDIA'

Country is with Manipur, peace will prevail: Modi

PREETHA NAIR @ New Delhi

WITH barely eight months to go for the general elections, the Modi government on Thursday defeated by voice vote a no-trust motion after three days of debate in the Lok Sabha amid Opposition walkout.

Replying to the motion, Prime Minister Narendra Modi assured the people of Manipur that the Centre and the state governments were working together to restore peace in the violence-hit state and asserted that those responsible for heinous crimes against women will not be spared. "The Northeast is a piece of our heart... The problems of Manipur are being presented in such a manner as if they had begun in the recent past," Modi said.

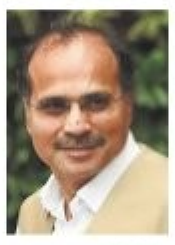
"I would like to assure all the citizens that peace will prevail in Manipur soon. I would like to assure the people of Manipur, especially women, that the country is with you. Parliament is with you," said Modi just after the Opposition staged a walkout midway through the speech as Manipur didn't figure in it till then. The mention of Manipur came after an hour and 40 minutes of the address.

In the speech that lasted around two hours and 20 minutes, the PM kept his focus on attacking Congress, the failures of UPA governments and the Opposition bloc INDIA. In a no-holds-barred attack on the Congress, Modi held the grand old party and its politics responsible for the problems of the Northeast. He recalled incidents like the use of the Air Force to attack the people in Mizoram, to point at the Congress "neglect" of the region.

As for the no-trust motion, he recalled having said in 2018 that "it was not a floor test for us but for them." Modi added that in 2028, when the Opposition moves another no-confidence motion, India would have become the third largest economy in the world.

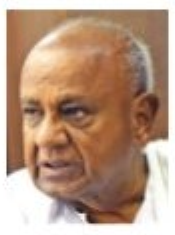
In a stinging attack against the INDIA bloc, he said changing their name will not change their fortunes. "This is a ghamandia (arrogant) alliance. The first I in I.N.D.I.A stands for the arrogance of parties and the other I for one family's arrogance," he charged. The Opposition, he said, is all about loot ki dukan (loot shop) and nafrat ka bazaar (hate bazaar), in what was seen as a swipe at Congress leader Rahul Gandhi's frequent pitch on mohabbat ki dukan (love shop).

ADHIR SUSPENDED FROM LOK SABHA



Just after the government won the no-confidence motion, Leader of the Opposition Adhir Ranjan Chowdhury was suspended from the Lok Sabha for alleged repeat misconduct. The matter will be investigated by the privileges committee. A resolution for his suspension was moved after his remarks against the PM triggered an outrage from the treasury benches. It was passed by a voice vote | P11

A NEW LOW, SAYS DEVE GOWDA



Former prime minister and JDS supremo HD Deve Gowda on Thursday expressed displeasure over noisy scenes during the debate on no-confidence motion in the Lok Sabha. "Despite my ill-health, I went to the Lok Sabha. I am disappointed with the happenings there. From my long experience, I say this is a new low," Gowda tweeted. The former PM said democracy can be saved only if everybody maintains dignity.

K'taka HC stays ₹50L cost on X Corp subject to ₹25L deposit

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bengaluru

THE Karnataka High Court on Thursday stayed the single judge's order imposing an exemplary cost of Rs 50 lakh on X Corp (formerly Twitter) while dismissing its petition against multiple blocking orders issued by the Ministry of Electronics and Information Technology, subject to depositing Rs 25 lakh cost in the court within a week. The stay does not apply to the dismissal of X Corp's petition.

The single judge bench dismissed Twitter's petition on June 30, 2023, and imposed an exemplary cost of Rs 50 lakh. It was made payable to Karnataka State Legal Services Authority within 45 days from that day, with any delay attracting an additional levy of Rs 5,000 per day. Hearing the X Corp's appeal mainly on the cost imposed, a division bench of Chief Justice Prasanna B Varale and Justice MGS Kamal passed the interim order staying the cost imposed by the single judge bench, but subject to a deposit of Rs 25 lakh in the court until the next hearing. P4

Bill in Rajya Sabha to axe CJI from 3-member panel that picks CEC

RAJESH KUMAR THAKUR
@ New Delhi

THE Centre on Thursday tabled a controversial bill in Rajya Sabha that seeks to replace the Chief Justice of India (CJI) with a Union cabinet minister in the three-member panel that picks the Chief Election Commissioner (CEC) and other Election Commissioners.

Currently, the panel comprises the prime minister, the leader of the Opposition in the Lok Sabha and the CJI. Under the Chief Election Commissioner and Other Election Commissioners (Appointment Conditions of Service and Term of Office) Bill, 2023, a Union cabinet minister nominated by the prime minister will join the panel in place of the CJI, giving the government more power over the appointment of top election officials.

The bill comes months after the Supreme Court in March ruled that the selection panel should comprise the prime minister, the leader of the opposition and the Chief Justice of India, till a law is framed by Parliament for the appointment of top Election Commission officials.

Current Chief Election Commissioner Anup Chandra Pandey is to demit office in February 2024, months ahead of the Lok Sabha polls.

The Bill was moved in the Upper House by Union law minister Arjun Ram Meghwal amid an Opposition uproar.

Criticising the bill, Aam Admi Party leader and Delhi Chief Minister Arvind Kejriwal said since the proposed panel will have two BJP members and one from the Congress, whichever EC is selected will be loyal to the ruling party.

Congress general secretary (organisation) K C Venugopal called it a "blatant attempt at making the Election Commission a total puppet in the hands of the prime minister". Noted lawyer Prashant Bhushan said even if the bill is passed by Parliament, it would be "unconstitutional".

South's tallest rail-road flyover almost ready, but can't be opened

Officials say ramps leading to the flyover must be ready, before it can open for traffic

S LALITHA @ Bengaluru

A view of the rail-cum-road flyover on Marehanahalli Road in Bengaluru | EXPRESS

SOUTH India's tallest rail-cum-road flyover coming up on Marehanahalli Road at the Jayadeva Intersection is almost complete, with finishing works for the road being carried out. However, its potential to ease traffic at one of Bengaluru's biggest chokepoints, the Central Silk Board Junction, will not materialise for now. Unless the ramps leading to it are ready, the flyover cannot be opened up for traffic, said senior Metro officials.

The flyover is being constructed by the Bangalore Metro Rail Corporation Limited (BMRCL) between Ragigudda and Central Silk Board in connection with the RV Road-Bommasandra Metro line (Reach-5), slated for launch by December this year.

The flyover has two layers above the ground level, with the first level having four lanes, while the second level will have the Metro tracks. "The length of the flyover runs to 3.2 km, while its height rises to 31 metres, making it the tallest in South India. Though the flyover is ready for now, the delay in construction of ramps has ensured that it can be opened up only before the launch of the line," said a senior official. When ready, it would provide smooth access to HSR Layout and Electronics City.

AFCONS Infrastructure Limited was awarded the contract delayedly, along with a project on Outer Ring Road. "The previous contractor who was supposed to complete the work abandoned it. It was retendered and AFCONS is carrying it out. However, since they had a delayed start, it will take time to complete the job."

A senior traffic police official told TNIE that they have asked BMRCL to carry out the work on top priority. "It will help us enormously. The ramp that leads from BTM Layout towards Outer Ring Road is used a lot by IT professionals and they can have a smooth ride when it is completed. Similarly, the loop, taking vehicles towards the Electronics City and Hosur, will divert vehicles this side. It will save 100 seconds and bring down four phases of signalling to two," she said.

Traffic police were extending all cooperation to Metro so that the project can be completed at the earliest, she added.

No one from AFCONS responded to repeated calls from this reporter.

Private transport operators to wait it out till August 18

AKNISREE KARTHIK @Bengaluru

PRIVATE bus, cab and auto unions who had given an ultimatum to the state government to compensate for the loss of business after the launch of the Shakti scheme, which offers free travel to women in non-premium government-run buses, have extended their ultimatum from August 10 to August 18.

The unions, under the banner of 'Federation of Karnataka State Private Transport Associations', had called for a 'Bengaluru Bandh' on July 27. However, following two levels of meetings chaired by Transport Minister Ramalinga Reddy and the officials of the transport department with the federation, the call for bandh was put on hold till August 10, and the federation was assured of a meeting with Chief Minister Siddaramaiah, since it is he who has to take a call on footing the bill of women passengers in private buses, similar to that in government buses.

Speaking to TNIE, the nominated president of the federation said, "We spoke to Transport Minister Ramalinga Reddy on Wednesday as the ultimatum given to the government was coming to an end on August 10. As Chief Minister Siddaramaiah is busy with his meeting with MLAs and ministers, they have asked us to wait till August 18. Based on the assurance, we have extended our ultimatum to the government till August 18 and will take a call after that."

The federation president added that Siddaramaiah has been informed by Reddy about the issues faced by private transport operators after the Shakti scheme was launched. "Transport department officials are also working to gauge the amount of loss due to the free travel scheme. When our delegation meets Siddaramaiah, the transport officials have been asked to come with the data on the loss of revenue, so that private transport operators can be compensated," he said.

Call for plan to boost Bengaluru's water table

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

KN Rajeev, Chief Engineer, Planning Department, BWSSB, on Thursday stressed the need for a plan to improve the groundwater table in the city and also to help tackle drinking water shortage.

He was speaking at a seminar on water security held under 'Brand Bengaluru' at Dayanand Sagar Technical University here.

Rajeev, also the nodal officer of 'Sated Bengaluru', said the college, which is an academic partner of 'Brand Bengaluru', has prepared a report based on more than 9,000 suggestions received from citizens.

"BWSSB is taking several steps to increase its drinking water storage capacity. Its officials are working overtime to provide drinking water to the people of Bengaluru," he said.

He said the city depended mostly on Cauvery water and stressed the need to explore supply from other sources.

Speakers at the seminar stressed the need to prevent the flow of sewage into lakes and other water bodies in the city. Only treated water should be released into lakes and water bodies.

They said civic agencies should focus on harvesting rainwater by persuading people to construct structures for the same. This will help improve the groundwater table of the city. They also emphasised the need for recycling waste water and to prevent unauthorized drilling of borewells in the city.

The seminar was held by BBMP and BWSSB.

However, a few activists alleged that the seminar was used to promote a prominent educational institution in the city and to boost the image of BWSSB officials.

Similarly, candidates who registered, but did not complete the application, can also complete the form and pay the fees through the portal. Students who have registered online should appear in person for document verification.

Age limit for Class 1 is 6, no HC relief for 4-yr-old

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

THE Karnataka High Court refused to interfere with the age limit of 6 years fixed for admission of children to Class 1 in government, aided and unaided schools, with effect from the academic year 2025-26.

Justice Sachin Shankar Magadum passed the order while dismissing the petition filed by Tishika Aniket, a 4-year-old girl, represented by her father, questioning the order dated July 26, 2022, and issuing a direction to the school education department to allow the petitioner to study in LKG for the academic year 2023-24.

Counsel for the petitioner contended that a school, after collecting fee for admission, had sent a mail on May 27, 2023, indicating that the petitioner is not eligible to take admission to LKG as she has not completed 4 years as on June 1, 2023, and therefore, intimated that the petitioner has to be retained in Nursery. This was based on the communication dated May 23, 2018, fixing the age criteria to take admission for Class-I in government schools, and aided and unaided schools. In this background, the school said the petitioner has to be retained in Nursery as she would not complete six years for the academic year 2025-26.

The judge said the state government has come up with an age norm in accordance with National Education Policy (NEP) 2020 guidelines, and rightly mandated that the minimum age limit for admission to Class I in schools should be 6 years as on June 1, while currently, the age limit is 5 years 5 months. The petitioner's contention that guidelines have to be implemented prospectively cannot be acceded to. The NEP guidelines for fixing age criteria are based on overall global education standards, the judge observed.

"Though I find some force in the petitioner's plea that this change in age criteria by NEP 2020 is found to be a little late in the day, cannot constitute a ground to interfere with the said policy... I am not inclined to grant any relief to the petitioner," the judge said.

PETER VIDAL

11th August: Another lively day focuses attention on Arien places. One of the great Aries countries, according to all ancient astrologers, is France, so let's all celebrate with some fine food and drink. Astrologers often advise us to do just this in order to keep ourselves happy and healthy. These days we often call it well-being.

ARIES (Mar 21 - Apr. 20)
If you could ever find the balance between home and family life and your worldly ambitions, it would be a breakthrough of epic proportions. Now you must put your special aspirations at the top of the agenda, go for broke and accept no limitations whatsoever.

TAURUS (Apr. 21 - May 21)
You want the best - and why not? To reach the goals you are now so keen to achieve, will take a good deal of effort, but the results and rewards may eventually outstrip your expectations, especially if you plan properly. Legal and ethical issues deserve your full consideration.

GEMINI (May 22 - June 21)
You may imagine that a financial choice has been satisfactorily delayed. However, nothing could be further from the truth. Important developments over the next few days could substantially affect your future prosperity, and I suspect it will be for the better.

CANCER (June 22 - July 23)
I would be the first to admit that emotional security is vital to your happiness but, as the days pass, amazing events will alter your outlook on a pattern you thought was so predictable. Don't rely on long-term plans, for everything is up for grabs over the next couple of weeks.

LEO (July 24 - Aug. 23)
If you haven't already got the bit between your teeth, you probably have plenty of spare time left. You have perhaps four or five weeks to prepare your ground, whether it's a personal goal that's at stake, or a professional coup. But you should be aware that partners may take some persuading.

VIRGO (Aug. 24 - Sept. 23)
Spontaneity, joy and pleasure are yours for the asking. The Moon's passage from one part of your chart to another makes it apparent that you must have a clear head and work out exactly what it is that you want. After all, you can't expect other people to satisfy you if you don't even know what to ask for!

LIBRA (Sept. 24 - Oct. 23)
You can take a series of slow but significant steps down the street of success, but there'll be a number of sharp bends along the way. Don't be surprised if the ground is swept from under your feet at home - and watch out for electronic machines and explosive gadgets.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22)
You may believe that the last word has been said, but if that is the case you are very wrong. You will soon discover that your mind has changed, and that others are likely to come back with some surprising news. What you hear may also have a surprising effect on your affections.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 - Dec. 22)
There are some things that cannot be changed, no matter what you do. Yet perhaps you can say enough to reassure people that past slights were unintended or that future goals are good for everyone. Get your thinking cap on and work out the best way to persuade partners that you're right!

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23 - Jan. 20)
It is time to set yourself new goals, adopt different priorities and leave behind the lost opportunities of recent times. But do keep a very open mind and be prepared for last-minute changes, particularly where very close partners are concerned.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 - Feb. 19)
Venus and Mercury are moving towards one of their periodic uncertain celestial patterns. It is therefore very likely that you will actually encounter someone you thought had disappeared - perhaps forever. Also, be prepared for a true, magical, romantic mystery.

PISCES (Feb. 20 - Mar 20)
Excellent celestial prospects await you, but you really must wear that thick skin you have started to grow over the past year or so: it is no use being vulnerable and sensitive. Maintain your right to spend some time pottering around at home, and don't be pressurised.

SC ALLOWS CONTRACT WORKERS TO WORK IN FACTORY CANTEENS

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

MORE than 700 large factories across the state will benefit from a Supreme Court order that allows contract workers to work in factory canteens. The Karnataka Employers' Association, that comprises owners of factories, businesses and establishments, has won a victory against certain provisions laid down on canteen workers, which said that factories cannot employ contract workers in canteens.

The Supreme Court dismissed a petition by the workers and worker unions, and said contract workers will be allowed in factory canteens. The relevant sections of the Factories' Act had said that factories and manufactories with a workforce of 250 would have to mandatorily set up an on-site canteen for workers, but in 1997, had ensured that larger factories could not do so because the government rule banned hiring of contract labour in canteens.

While many of the factories hired the workers as permanent staff, about 40 factories decided to challenge the state government order. They did not receive the expected encouragement from the High Court in 1998, and approached the Supreme Court.

In 2011, the Karnataka Employers' Association led by B C Prabhakar challenged the order of the state government. They were joined by entrepreneurs and trade body representatives from FKCCI, BCIC and CII among others, and said the Act could have a bearing on investments, because states around Karnataka had no such restriction.

In the interim period, although labour unions challenged this order, the high court in 2011 was convinced that contract labour being allowed in these canteens was fine as per law. A seesaw legal battle ensued, with arguments and counter-arguments, and the Employers' Association prevailed in the end. They can now operate their canteens with contract staff or outsource the work entirely.

EARLY TREATMENT

AI can predict severity of conjunctivitis

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Bengaluru

IN an effort to identify and treat severe conjunctivitis cases early, Narayana Nethralaya has managed to predict the severity of such cases using Artificial Intelligence (AI). "We are using AI to predict the severity of conjunctivitis. This can help clinicians provide right treatment that helps in better recovery. This biomarker work in tears is probably one of the first in the country, and could also be one of the first conjunctivitis-related tear biomarker research in the world," said Dr Rohit Shetty, chairman, Narayana Nethralaya explained.

Addressing reporters on Thursday, the doctor said that using imaging and molecular diagnostics has enabled them to use AI and bio-markers in conjunctivitis to predict severity. This AI driven research has highlighted that people who are more prone to allergies or asthma and have low Vitamin D levels are getting severely affected. The AI model has demonstrated 97 per cent accuracy, affirming its successful interpretation.

Cases of conjunctivitis, commonly known as 'pink eye', are on the rise in Bengaluru in the past few weeks. Doctors at Narayana see over 100 patients daily, with 30% of them being children. Most cases are caused due to adenovirus, and is not just a summer infection, but occurs in all seasons. "This research is of paramount importance to patients and doctors, as the disease has been addressed with a blanket approach that may not be suitable for all. Depending on severity, we can decide what medications would be suitable, and starting topical steroids early can be beneficial," said Dr Gairik, consultant, cornea and refractive surgery, Narayana Nethralaya.

Ex-corporator's son dies by suicide

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

A former Bruhat Bengaluru Mahanagara Palike (BBMP) corporator's son died by suicide at Attiguppe in Chandra Layout police station limits, on Thursday.

The deceased has been identified as Gautham (29), a resident of 3rd Main Road in Attiguppe. He was the son of K Doddanna, a former Congress corporator from the BBMP Attiguppe ward.

The Police said the incident came to light on Thursday afternoon.

According to Doddanna's statement to the police, Gautham had gone to his room and locked himself after having lunch on Wednesday afternoon and had not come out since then.

As he did not come out even for breakfast or lunch on Thursday, Doddanna, with the help of two of his other sons, broke the room door to find Gautham hanging from the ceiling fan.

"His family members said that they were in search of a bride for Gautham but the latter was depressed over some issue from the last few months and was not speaking much to anyone. It is suspected that depression is the reason for the extreme step," the Chandra Layout police, who have registered an unnatural death report, said.

BJP links it with contractors' row

A few Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) leaders alleged that Gautham was a contractor and ended his life as the State Government had kept the payment of contractors pending.

However, Gautham's family members clarified that he was not a contractor.

Woman boards wrong cab, driver assaults her

BENGALURU: A cab driver allegedly assaulted a 48-year-old woman for mistakenly boarding the wrong cab in Bellandur police station limits, on Wednesday. The police have arrested the driver Basavaraju (25), a resident of Malleswaram. The police said the woman, Vinita Agrawal, booked a cab to a hospital from Bhoganahalli at 11 am on Wednesday. As she was waiting at her apartment, a cab arrived and she boarded it along with her son. When the driver asked for the PIN to start the ride, she realised that she had gotten into the wrong cab. Her son alighted the vehicle and when she was getting down, the driver allegedly started moving the car. "Irked by this, the woman banged the door. Irked, the driver engaged in a heated argument with her before pushing her," the police said. ENS

Govt will give 'honest' contractors justice, says Shivakumar

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

WITH Bruhat Bengaluru Mahanagara Palike (BBMP) contractors slamming the State Government over pending dues, Deputy Chief Minister DK Shivakumar on Thursday said a conspiracy was being hatched against him.

This comes days after the BBMP contractors accused Shivakumar of demanding 10 to 15% commission to clear pending bills.

"I know who is behind sending the contractors to Delhi and making them address the media... But we (Congress government) are committed to giving justice to those contractors who have taken up the works and completed them honestly," he told reporters here, adding that an inquiry has been ordered to look into the issue.

"Let them (contractors) prove the work they have done. Those who have done the work honestly, the government will ensure justice to them," the DyCM elaborated.

The Congress government has constituted four teams to look into the BBMP works taken up in the city over the last four years.

Ministers support DKS

Transport Minister Ramalinga Reddy too said that the pending dues will be released only after the probe teams investigate and submit their report. "There is no truth in the allegations (against Shivakumar). But I urge the government that action should be taken at the earliest to release the dues to contractors," he said.

Hitting out at the previous BJP government, Rural Development Panchayat Raj Minister Priyank Kharge, said, "The contractors came to me also. But I clarified that the money will be released as per law. Don't we have to verify the works before releasing the bills? The BJP when in power might have taken money to clear the bills and hence are now batting in favour of the contractors."

ALLEGATION AGAINST DKS FALSE, SAYS LAW MINISTER

Law and Parliamentary Affairs Minister H K Patil denied the contractors' charges that the DyCM had asked for commission to clear bills. "There were allegations that works were not implemented, hence the panels were set up. The minister has replied. Since implementation of the five guarantees has been successful, these false allegations are cropping up," he remarked.

BJP to turn the tables on Congress

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

THE BJP, which was bogged down by the Congress over corruption as one of the major issues in the May 10 assembly polls, is set to launch a struggle to pay the Grand Old Party in the same coin for the 2024 Lok Sabha polls.

Raising allegations of BBMP contractors that DyCM DK Shivakumar had asked for 15 per cent commission, the BJP asked party leader Rahul Gandhi to intervene. Former CM Basavaraj Bommai, who called on Union Home Minister Amit Shah and party president JP Nadda in New Delhi, said the BJP was going all out against the Congress government.

"We discussed preparations for the Lok Sabha elections, governance by the Congress, people's opinion on it, and our future struggle to highlight the government's failures," he told reporters after meeting a delegation of BBMP Contractors' Association office-bearers, at his residence in RT Nagar in Bengaluru.

The Congress high command had declared zero-tolerance against corruption, but the contractors have tweeted to Rahul Gandhi, alleging the government is charging 65 per cent commission, he pointed out.

Meanwhile, former minister R Ashoka made a scathing attack on the government by posing questions, and asked if the government was collecting funds for the Lok Sabha elections. Addressing the press, he said Amit Shah's that Karnataka will become an ATM of the Congress has come true. "When Basavaraj Bommai was CM, he was slandered by the PayCM propaganda. Now has it become Pay Congress? Pay CM, Pay DCM? Shivakumar has spoken about the poor standard of work in BBMP but there are yardsticks and standards to gauge work," he said.

'DKS promised to release funds, has not asked us for money'

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

SMALL and medium contractors of Bruhat Bengaluru Mahanagara Palike (BBMP) held a meeting on Thursday and said the government has assured them that pending bills for the past 28 months will be released shortly.

The contractors, who execute ward level works of Rs 50 lakh to Rs 1crore, said they met Deputy Chief Minister DK Shivakumar on August 7 and gave a representation, and he has assured that funds will be released at the earliest.

Association president Nagendra also clarified that members met Shivakumar at least six times in the past two months, and the DyCM has never asked for any commission or cut to release payment. The association president also stated that so far, they have carried out 4,440 ward level civil works worth Rs 2,593 crore. The bills are pending from April 2021 to June 2023.

The association contended that allegations against Shivakumar in the media, including social media platforms, are far from the truth.

"People making these allegations are doing it for personal reasons. We condemn such baseless allegations," association members said in unison.

The association blamed non-cooperation from the Palike chief commissioner and special commissioner of the BBMP finance department. "We held a discussion with Chief Minister Siddaramaiah, and he promised to hold a discussion with Deputy Chief Minister DK Shivakumar and get the pending bills released at the earliest," stressed Nagendra.

The association also made it clear that they have not called for any strike and would continue executing ward-level works at the same time, and keep appealing to the government to clear the bills at the earliest.

Violation of Covid norms: Govt drops cases against Siddu, DKS

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

The Karnataka Cabinet on Thursday decided to withdraw criminal cases filed against senior Congress leaders, including Chief Minister Siddaramiah and Deputy CM DK Shivakumar, for allegedly violating Covid-19 norms during the party's 'Mekedatu padayatra' in January 2022.

Speaking to reporters after the Cabinet meeting, Law and Parliamentary Affairs Minister HK Patil said the Cabinet has decided to withdraw 9 criminal cases booked in various police stations of the state.

The Congress, then in Opposition, had organised the padayatra demanding implementation of the mekedatu reservoir project across the Cauvery river, despite Covid-19 restrictions. They walked from Ramanagara to Bengaluru, cases were booked for violating social distancing norms as part of Covid guidelines.

The decision to withdraw the cases was taken based on the plea by MLA Ashok Pattan, who is also the government's Chief Whip in the Legislative Assembly.

Elaborating, Patil said the 9 cases are related to violation of Covid norms by Congress leaders, including Siddaramaiah, Shivakumar, MP DK Suresh and others for taking part in the padayatra based on the complaint filed by Ramanagara tahsildar.

The march with the theme 'Namma Neeru, Namma Hakku' (Our water, Our right) that had initially begun at Sangama, the confluence of Cauvery and Arkavathi rivers at Kanakapura in Ramanagara district, on January 9, 2022 was scheduled to conclude at Basavanagudi here on January 19, after spanning a total distance of nearly 139 km.

The Congress had organised the march with the theme 'Namma Neeru, Namma Hakku' (Our Water, Our right), demanding the implementation of the Mekedatu project. The State Government had imposed Section 144 as part of its efforts to prevent the spread of Covid-19.

COMPULSORY RETIREMENT FOR 'CORRUPT' DOCTORS, OFFICIAL

The Cabinet on Thursday decided to give compulsory retirement to government officials, including doctors, found guilty of corruption by the Lokayukta. Two doctors and an official, who were convicted in a corruption case by Lokayukta, have been given compulsory retirement from the service. Speaking to reporters, Law Minister HK Patil said that the Deputy Commissioner, Commercial Tax Department MH Nagesh, has been found guilty and has been given a five-year jail term for corruption charges. Similarly, Dr Usha Kadaramandalagi, Gynaecologist at Ramanagara Government Hospital and Dr ST Nagamani were trapped by the Lokayukta. All the three officials have now been given compulsory retirement," Patil said.

New cyber security policy gets Cabinet nod

OTHER DECISIONS

- Cabinet approval to procure sunflower oil instead of palm oil for preparation of nutritious food at anganwadis
- Cabinet sub-committee to look into levying property taxes on illegal constructions or buildings or properties that comes under various urban local bodies, including mahanagara palike limits
- Cabinet approved escalation in the cost of construction of Super Specialty Hospital coming up in the premises of Belagavi Medical College to Rs 187 crore. Earlier, the cost of the project was 140 crore
- Administrative nod for Rs 30.74 crore to insert vehicle tracking and panic button in KSRTC buses along with centralised control room.

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bengaluru

THE Karnataka Cabinet on Thursday approved the Karnataka Cyber Security Policy 2023-24 aimed at curbing cyber crimes and promoting data privacy.

It also gave administrative approval to set up the Centre of Excellence for Aerospace and Defence at a cost of Rs 391 crore at Visvesvaraya Technological University (VTU) campus in Bengaluru for research.

Law and Parliamentary Affairs Minister HK Patil said as the number of cyber cases are increasing, the policy will bring awareness among people on data protection. The State Government, along with urban local bodies, including panchayats, will hold awareness programmes from time to time. "They will bring awareness using technology and social media. The policy will also include awareness and training in new software initiatives of the government, online banking, technology literacy and cyber security," the minister elaborated. Patil further said presently surveys of cyber security as well as data privacy will be conducted. He also said that the policy at present will stress on cyber security. "In the coming days, it will widen the ambit to deal with fake news," he said.

On the proposed Centre of Excellence, Patil said it will be developed under the Public Private Partnership (PPP) with Dassault Systemes contributing Rs 250 crore, while other stakeholders include the State Government (Department of IT, BT and Science and Technology) and VTU. It was approved in 2017, the project started in 2020 and total operations are being started now, Patil said.

Tiptur astrologer predicts woman PM in 2024

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Tumakuru

A young astrologer from Karnataka, who claimed to have predicted the victory of the Congress party in the May 10 Assembly elections, has predicted that a woman will become the country's prime minister after the 2024 Lok Sabha elections. Addressing a section of the media a few days ago, Dr Yashwant 'Guruji', the dharmadhikari of Shani temple at Nonavinakere in Tiptur taluk, predicted that no party will get absolute majority in the 2024 LS elections.

"The fractured mandate will result in an alliance government at the Centre with a woman PM," he predicted.

He claimed that his prediction was based on the change in stars' position. There will be a change in leadership in India after Maha Shivaratri festival in February 2024. "If elections are held before the festival, Modi will become PM again," he said.

Asked about who among WB CM Mamata Banerji, former AICC president Sonia Gandhi, and her daughter and Congress leader Priyanka Gandhi will become PM, he maintained that he will predict that after February. Since the prediction has come as music to the ears of Congress, the sympathisers of the party shared the video of Dr Yashwant on social media, which has gone viral.

'X Corp failed to show compliance with orders'

ON depositing Rs 25 lakh, the order of the single judge would be stayed by way of interim order until the next hearing, the court said while permitting the Union Government to file a statement of objections as well as an application for vacation of the interim order.

"The single judge, in his detailed reasoning, found that the petition seriously suffered on account of inordinate delay and latches and the culpable conduct of the petitioner (X Corp)," the court said, while orally observing that the single judge had rightly imposed exemplary costs for not showing regard to the law of the country by complying with the blocking orders after one year and four months from the date of issue of such orders and nothing wrong with it. Further, the court said it can be safely said the single judge found that in spite of the opportunity granted to X Corp, it was unable to show dutiful compliance with the orders passed by the competent authorities, the court noted.

X Corp's counsel had submitted before the single judge that there was due compliance with the order of the competent authority and the company for specific reasons had not complied with the blocking order with respect to only a few URLs out of 39 URLs. The single judge awarded the cost to be deposited with the third party. Such direction may not be sustainable in view of the judgment of the apex court, the counsel argued.

The counsel for the Centre submitted that X Corp failed to place on record any specific materials showing compliance on time. If time is granted, the relevant materials will be submitted for the satisfaction of the court in support of the findings of the single judge.

Noting that US-based X Corp adopted a tactical approach to delay compliance with the Union Government's blocking orders showed its intent to remain non-compliant with Indian law, the single judge had dismissed the latter's petition questioning certain blocking orders by imposing the exemplary cost of Rs 50 lakh.

Before the single judge, the X Corp challenged the orders issued to block 39 URLs among a series of orders issued under Section 69A of the I-T Act between February 2021 and February 2022 to block 1,474 accounts/URLs and 175 tweets from being accessed by the public, besides certain information which included suspension of whole accounts on Twitter. The blocking orders were issued from February 2, 2021, to February 28, 2022.

'PayCS' posters target agri minister in Mandya

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Mysuru

WITH the Congress' 'PayCM' campaign against the Bommai government paying rich dividends for the Grand Old Party in the May 10 Assembly elections, the BJP has now followed suit by launching 'PayCS' campaign targeting Agriculture Minister N Chaluvarayaswamy over alleged corruption. The posters of 'PayCS' with a QR code giving details of the alleged bribe needed for transfers have emerged in public places in Mandya.

As BJP workers continued to paste the posters on the highway, the police arrested activist Shivakumar, Manjunath, Aradhya, and others even removed the posters.

The campaign comes in the wake of Chaluvarayaswamy facing corruption charges after seven assistant directors of the agriculture department in Mandya allegedly wrote to Governor Thaawarchand Gehlot alleging that the minister demanded a bribe through the joint director. The Governor forwarded it to Chief Secretary Vandita Sharma, asking her to take appropriate action. The State Government has ordered for a CID probe.

Meanwhile, the police interrogated the Joint Director, Deputy Director, and Assistant Directors in the Agriculture office for more than 4 hours to know with whom they are in touch with, who might have influenced them to write the letter to the governor, and who is behind it. The police, who seized their mobile phones, are also looking into the chats and WhatsApp messages.

Jewargi MLA Ajay Singh appointed KKRDB chief

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Kalaburagi

THE State Government has appointed Jewargi Congress MLA Dr Ajay Singh as the president of the Kalyana Karnataka Region Development Board (KKRDB) for a period of one year. According to a notification issued by the director and ex-officio deputy director of Planning, Programme Coordination and Statistics Department D Chandrasekharaiah in Bengaluru, the government has nominated 11 public representatives of KKRDB for a period of one year on rotation basis. Rajya Sabha member Syed Nasir Hussain, MLC Aravind Arali Yalakanur from Bidar district, MLC Tippannappa Kamaknoor from Kalaburagi district, Aland MLA BR Patil, Yadgir MLA Raja Venkatappa Naik, Sindhanur MLA Hampanagouda Badarli, Yelburga MLA Basavaraj Rayareddy, Sandur MLA Raghavendra Itnal and Vijayanagar MLA HR Gaviyappa a have been nominated as the members of KKRDB.

By nominating Ajay Singh, a three-time MLA, the Congress has pacified him to some extent as he was aspiring to become a minister.

Speaking to TNIE, Ajay Singh said he is a disciplined soldier of the Congress and would abide by its decision. He would assume charge in a few days and work for the betterment of Kalyana Karnataka. Minister for Planning and Statistics MC Sudhakar met Ajay Singh at the latter's residence immediately after issuing the notification on Thursday evening and held discussions for over 1 hour, sources said.

The team of women from Bengaluru at a mental health camp in Manipur

B'luru women set up mental health camps to help Manipur heal

BANSY KALAPPA @ Bengaluru

A young woman pregnant with twins recalled how she ran away into the hills to flee a raving armed mob of killers on a shooting spree. She trekked across forests and mountains for four days, hungry and tired, to reach safety. Another woman recalled how her family members had vanished, and are presumed dead.

Others recalled the horror of violence unleashed against them, at a series of sessions to deal with their grief and pain, memories of rape, death and mindless destruction in Manipur, at a mental health camp. Krithika Tharan, a mental health professional from Bengaluru, has reached Manipur to set up these camps.

"When Chennai was flooded, or when the tsunami hit parts of India, or an earthquake struck Gujarat and Maharashtra, people from across the nation rushed to help, but why is it not happening with Manipur? Is Manipur not a part of India?" said Kritika Tharan.

Krithika, psychiatrist Dr Radhika Murugeshan, and mental health professional Sujadevi Adimooli LR have been in Manipur for five days. The group of friends has organised mental and emotional health camps and are helping people cope with neurosis, anxiety, post-traumatic stress disorder and other issues."With such a large outbreak of violence, there is bound to be severe trauma which needs to be attended to immediately," said Krithika. "Tomorrow we step into Meitei areas from the Kuki-Zo areas."

Christy Suantak, a local who is in Churachandpur in Manipur, said, "There is a great need for this. I too go around every day, comforting people in relief camps, for they are in immense pain. There are about 108 camps in Churachandpur district alone, and about 80,000 people are homeless. There is not only trauma, grief and anger of the past, but uncertainty of the future and how to start afresh, because they have lost everything."

Former director, Commonwealth Human Rights Initiative, Sanjoy Hazarika told TNIE, 'It is critical that trained counsellors and mental health professionals reach out to those who have suffered harm, intimidation and abuse. They need mental healthcare which cannot be met by monetary compensation. We need more such teams to help them cope with trauma, the loss of loved ones, homes and villages, and the horror of their own neighbours turning on them."

CPM rejects charges against Veena

All transactions between Pinarayi's daughter and her firm legitimate, states the party

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Thiruvananthapuram

THE CPM leadership has rejected the recent allegations against Chief Minister Pinarayi Vijayan's daughter Veena Vijayan and her firm Exalogic Solutions.

Terming the allegations of payments to her as 'monthly quota' from Kochi-based company CMRL as baseless, the party alleged that a routine issue involving a company is being used for political gains.

In a statement issued on Thursday, the CPM alleged that there was a conspiracy to drag the chief minister's name into the issue. The allegations were made in the backdrop of the Puthuppaly byelection announcement, observed the CPM, adding that the chief minister has no link with the issue.

It was a legal service agreement between two legitimate companies, and the money was paid on an annual basis as per the norms of the agreement. This was termed as monthly quota to make it appear credible.

"It's a transparent deal between two companies. All transactions between them were made through the bank. Such legitimate transactions between two companies were portrayed as monthly quota," stated the CPM.

The CPM leadership alleged that an IT-related matter involving a company is being used to make political gains. Of late, the Centre and its numerous agencies have been hunting down political opponents by targeting their families. Such moves were made in Bihar and Telangana too. The conspiracy to drag the chief minister into the matter is evident for all to see.

ISRO course on disaster management

ENS @ Bengaluru

ISRO's Disaster Management Support Programme (DMSP) aids central and state governments by providing operational services during pre-disaster, disaster and post-disaster phases, using aerial remote sensing methods. On Thursday, the space agency announced its fourth capacity building programme in disaster management and financial support of Rs 9 lakh for 25 participants.

Individuals from government and non-governmental organisations will be taught to utilise space technology for disaster management and identify key elements for sustainable mitigation.

Scientists, engineers, and faculty members of R&D organisations and recognized academic institutions can apply for financial aid under the programme for the offline course, stated the space agency. The deadline for receiving soft and hard copies of proposals is August 20, 2023.

Tugboat at Kadamba catches fire

SUBHASH CHANDRA NS @ Karwar

AN accidental fire broke out on a tug boat called Tez at Arga dockyard in Kadamba Naval base, in Karwar, Uttara Kannada district. The incident occurred on Thursday noon. According to sources, the fire was seen in the engine and spread quickly to the diesel tank.

Tugboat Tez which caught fire at Arga dockyard on Thursday | EXPRESS

Sources said the fire was so intense that the Navy's fire fighters alone could not contain it and had to call for fire tenders from Karwar. The Navy, in its statement, said the fire tenders and firefighters co-ordinated to put off the fire and keep the damage minimal.

After hours of combined effort, the fire was brought under control, but there had been severe damage due to this mishap.

However, official sources in the Navy described it as a minor issue and informed TNIE that the fire was brought under control immediately with no loss of life. This was a first such incident that occurred in Naval base in Karwar.

LETTER TO PM

Retd IFS officers write on misuse of forest land

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

A group of 63 retired Indian Forest Service (IFS) officers from different states on Thursday wrote a letter to the Prime Minister, Union ministers and secretaries of the Ministry of Environment, Forests and Climate Change (MoEFCC) and Ministry of Tribal Affairs (MTA), expressing their concern over the increasing misuse of the Forest Rights Act (FRA) 2006.

They pointed out that in the recent past, some states have granted title/ patta over lakhs of acres of forest land by misusing loopholes in the rules, and ambiguous guidelines issued by the MTA. The retired officers said as per the FRA, claimants who were in possession of forest land as on December 13, 2005, are eligible for grant of title over forest land. Some states have given titles to forest encroachers who occupied forest land after the cut-off date, primarily on an oral statement of village elders and did not consider impartial and scientific evidence of satellite imageries showing the status of forest occupation prior and after 2005.

Retd IFS officer BK Singh said this is the first time retired officers have penned a letter to the government. This is because there is gross misuse of land and rights. Cases of encroachment are being reported on a regular basis, in violation of the Forest Conservation Act, 1980, and Indian Forest Act, 1927.

The letter stated that ineligible communities have been granted rights without specifying the extent.

NO-TRUST MOTION: A LOST CHANCE TO REASSURE MANIPUR PEOPLE

The no-confidence motion the opposition parties tabled in the Lok Sabha missed the opportunity to provide a healing touch to Manipur's bruised and battered people and send a clear message to the perpetrators of violence that the State will not spare them. The opposition used the important parliamentary tool of no-confidence motion to force a detailed discussion on Manipur, which has been burning for the last three months, and get the government to commit to decisive action to put an end to the violence and take action to bring the communities together. But Manipur got lost in a din of speeches that sounded more like a campaign for the 2024 Lok Sabha elections. The opposition and the treasury benches indulged largely in blame games and talked more about issues other than Manipur. The raging violence in the state and deepening divide between its major communities—Meiteis and Kukis—has put Manipur on a powder keg, with the situation threatening to take a turn for the worse due to international ramifications.

There has been a complete loss of faith in the state administration under CM Biren Singh, who is accused of acting in a partisan manner. The people of Manipur, and the Northeast at large, were expecting that the critical discussion in Parliament would result in some concrete assurances by the government and an action plan for the return of peace. But there was neither any indication of action against the chief minister nor an action plan to achieve peace. The discussion on the no-confidence motion concluded with PM Narendra Modi's reply, but it offered no concrete hopes for the end of the strife.

The governmental inaction had earlier forced the Supreme Court to intervene in the matter. It has appointed a retired judge to monitor the CBI probe into the sexual violence in the state and another three-judge committee to look into the humanitarian aspects. This committee is tasked with helping with the relief, remedial measures, rehabilitation, compensation, restoration of homesteads, religious places of worship, etc. The no-confidence motion was an opportunity for the government to send a loud and clear message about its intention to establish peace and protect the lives and property of the people of Manipur. But the voices that have emerged from the state after listening to the debate leave little doubt that the government failed to send such a message.

RATE HIKE THAT WASN'T, VEGGIES PUSH INFLATION

The RBI may have raised short-term rates without saying so. On Thursday, while keeping the benchmark repo rate unchanged at 6.5%, it announced an incremental Cash Reserve Ratio (CRR) of 10% on banks' net demand and time liabilities (NDTL) between May 19 and July 28. The dates are significant. The former was when the RBI announced the withdrawal of ₹2,000 notes, and the latter saw 87% of the pink notes returning to the system. All that stash is with banks, and the temporary CRR move will do two things: raise the amount of cash banks park with RBI, which it estimates at over ₹1 lakh crore, and reduce system liquidity by a similar amount. But more than currency absorption, analysts expect short-term rates on money market instruments like call money rates, treasury bills and commercial paper to increase by 15–20 bps.

The ₹2,000 banknote removal spiked surplus liquidity to ₹3.5 lakh crore. Yet, the weighted average call money rate, or the operating target of RBI's monetary policy and one the central bank closely tracks, is in line with the repo rate. What, then, was the logic behind incremental CRR? It turns out that surplus liquidity puts pressure on interest rates, and Thursday's decision preempted that from happening. Rising food prices, led by tomatoes, cereals and pulses, have raised the inflation outlook for both July-August and FY24 to 5.4%. As seen in advanced economies, further price shocks may call back rate hikes. Moreover, risks such as uneven monsoons, looming El Nino conditions, and hardening global commodity prices also have a bearing on inflation.

While the Monetary Policy Committee (MPC) was willing to look through the perishable food price increases, recurring shocks could risk anchoring inflation expectations. As Governor Shaktikanta Das noted, the focus was reducing inflation to 4%, not merely getting it into the tolerance band. RBI remains watchful and is ready to act, which means, the October policy review may throw in one last rate hike if inflation continues to surge. Or, as Das said, RBI may 'not resort to knee-jerk reactions', and instead of repo rate, it may deploy any of the dozen-odd direct and indirect tools—like Thursday's CRR—it has in its arsenal to douse inflationary fires.

QUICK TAKE

DIGNITY OF INTERSEX CHILDREN

The Kerala HC regulates reconstructive surgeries on infants/children with ambiguous genitalia. Unless a child's life is in danger, they should happen when the child is of an age to give informed consent, the court said. The welcome intervention should end a sordid saga of a medico-parental nexus to surgically settle gender assignment among intersex children, without caring for their dignity and privacy or the psychological impact on them as they grow up. Ambiguous genitalia are mainly a psycho-social concern requiring counselling. Surgery can only make the genitals look normal. All states must constitute medical boards to approve surgeries only in life-threatening situations.

COOPERATIVE TO 'COERCIVE' FEDERALISM

SHASHI THAROOR

Third-term Lok Sabha MP from Thiruvananthapuram and the Sahitya-Akademi winning author of 24 books, most recently Ambedkar: A Life

SOUMYADIP SINHA

The Union government predictably bulldozed its Delhi Bill by ratifying its controversial ordinance that deprives the elected state government of control over its institutions and officials. During the Bill's introduction, I had strongly opposed its being brought to the House at a time when a motion of no-confidence was pending, in violation of the established practice and procedure of Parliament, which states that no substantive motion on policy matters may be raised until the motion is disposed of. During 27 no-confidence motions introduced since Independence, no bills were debated or passed—until the BJP government passed two bills in 2018. This time, 19 bills have been passed amid the din of disruption. So much for democratic morality.

The Bill is no ordinary legislation: it represents yet another assault on Indian democracy. Four years ago, the government unceremoniously sealed the fate of a democratically elected government in Jammu and Kashmir, disregarding the basic constitutional relationship of its people to the Republic of India without consulting them or their elected representatives. It was a breathtaking betrayal of our democracy, revealing utter contempt for the people of the state and the value of political decency meant to animate our culture. This ominous precedent has been repeated in Delhi.

Today, the Union of States, so original and aspirational in its genesis, faces a crisis. In stark contrast to the government's claims of 'cooperative federalism', we routinely see the government impinging upon the sovereign domain of the states, from vacillating on GST dues to delaying MNREGA payments. 'Coercive federalism' is now the name of the game.

The Bill removes services from the legislative competence of the Delhi Assembly. By adding services to the existing exemptions of land, public order and police, it amends the Constitution without being a Constitutional Amendment Bill, an act of constitutional chicanery. It establishes the National Capital Civil Services Authority, consisting of the chief minister, chief secretary of Delhi and principal home secretary, to make recommendations to the Lieutenant-Governor regarding transfers and postings of officials and disciplinary matters. The two officials can outvote the CM and even constitute a quorum in his absence to take decisions with which he disagrees. So, bureaucrats will exercise the authority that voters have given to their elected public representatives.

In our system, ministers bear the responsibility before the legislature for every action undertaken by public officials in their respective departments, However, under the Bill, a Delhi minister cannot hold his public officials accountable even for bureaucratic delays.

In its May 2023 judgement that the Bill overrode, the Supreme Court had argued that democratic government rests on a triple chain of accountability: civil servants are accountable to ministers, ministers are accountable to legislatures, and legislatures are accountable to the electorate. If a democratically elected government is not provided the authority to control its own officials, this severs the first link of the triple chain of accountability, contradicting the core principle of parliamentary democracy and the very framework of the Constitution's basic structure.

Article 239AA, which conferred a special status on the National Capital Territory of Delhi and constitutionally entrenched a representative form of government, was incorporated in the Constitution in the spirit of federalism so that the residents of the capital city would have a voice in how they are governed. It is the responsibility of the NCTD government to express the will of the people of Delhi who elected them. The Court had noted that the principles of federalism and democracy are interlinked since the states' exercise of legislative power gives effect to people's aspirations; federalism creates "dual manifestation of the public will" in which the priorities of the two sets of governments "are not just bound to be different, but are intended to be different".

Article 239AA says the L-G has to act on the aid and advice of the Council of Ministers, except when exercising his responsibility for the peace and tranquillity of Delhi, relations of the Delhi government with any state government, the Supreme Court, and the High Court of Delhi, and the summoning and dissolving of the Legislative Assembly. The Bill expands this and gives him extraordinary discretionary power so that if there is a difference of opinion between the L-G and the CM, the L-G's opinion will take precedence. These provisions blatantly violate the principle of the L-G acting on the aid and advice of the Council of Ministers on matters within the executive competence of the latter. They also contradict the 2018 judgement of the Supreme Court, which stated that the decision-making power lies with the elected government.

We have repeatedly seen a sustained attempt to curtail states' autonomy under this government. The list is extensive, from the unjustified push to impose Hindi on the southern states to the weaponisation of regulatory and investigative bodies like the Enforcement Directorate, the CBI and the Income Tax department to clamp down on the government's political opponents from regional parties. Add the use of legislation like the Disaster Management Act, whose obscure provision was used to ride roughshod over states' rights in imposing successive lockdowns during the Covid pandemic; the creation and misuse of the PM CARES fund, which limited the flow of cash to state-run Disaster Relief Funds; and the disproportionate increase in Centrally sponsored schemes, which effectively reduce states to mere implementing agencies.

To cap it all, there's the growing tendency to undermine the careful balance in our fiscal federalism that enabled our states to pursue their priorities, including the record number of cesses currently levied by the Central government, whose proceeds are not shared with the states. The latest legislation reiterates that the ruling dispensation's hyper-nationalist desire for uniformity will ride roughshod over the diversity that keeps our country united.

In the debate, the home minister completely overlooked the basic constitutional question. I have no doubt that were the roles reversed—if the BJP were in power in Delhi and the present Opposition in control of the national government—the BJP would itself reject this Bill. It is a classic case of "where you stand depends on where you sit". In this unabashed power grab, the dignity of the legislature and the nation has suffered. Will the Supreme Court let it succeed?

DEATH OF ARTISTRY: THE LAMENT OF INDIA'S CREATIVE SOUL

KAJAL BASU

Veteran journalist

Gummadi Vittal Rao aka Gaddar, a Telugu folk singer legendary for his grassroots activist minstrelsy and a pain in the side of many governments for over a half-century, died on August 6, 2023. He was 77. He died with barely a threnody. When veteran lyricist Abhilash died aged 74 in September 2020, it was to an eerie hush, with people having forgotten that he had written the lyrics of the unforgettable Itni shakti hamein dena data (Give us this strength, o God) for the film Ankush (1986)—a song translated into eight languages and sung in school assemblies across the vast Hindi heartland.

I can name a rack of other artists who died barely noticed in and by the media, and its common-citizens extension, social media: thespian Vishwa Mohan Badola; Neo-Expressionist Anjum Singh; Shanti Hiranand, the torchbearer of the Begum Akhtar gayaki; ceramicist Jyotsna Bhatt; Ustad Iqbal Ahmed Khan of the Dilli gharana; abstractionist K Damodaran; poet Malikzada Manzoor Ahmed; watercolourist of melancholia Lalitha Lajmi, filmmaker Guru Dutt's sister; Mohiniyattam exponent Kanak Rele; and installation artist Hema Upadhyay.

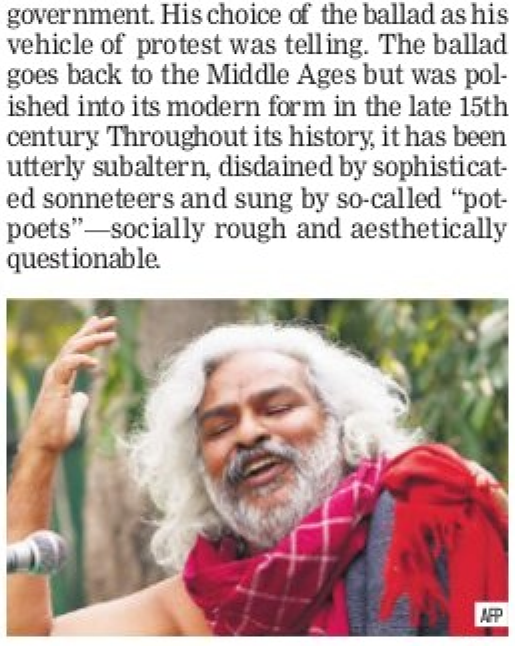
These were national figures, some top-echelon awardees, with music and artworks that infiltrated the global art world's critically brusque, nez haut salons.

And, yet, here in India, art and artistry have been relegated off-radar for the past decade—our screens filled with screaming politics, religio-politics, and the Machiavellianism of 'development'.

There is, literally, zero coverage of the arts. The only artists who supposedly animate this country belong to the cinema—and their lives (and deaths) are held up as instructive, exemplary and inspirational. Radicality in aesthetics—the essence and hallmark of creativity anywhere in the world at any time—is happening here off-camera. If it is happening at all: I wouldn't know, given the lack of information, and nor, I'd wager, would you?

Radicality in politico-aesthetics? What's that, you might ask. And I would circle back to the beginning of this write-up—to Gaddar. He was a political artist, an inseparable amalgam of both adjectives. He represented lateral politics as it moved from subversive to moderation, from Manichaean to cooperative, from partisan to intersectional. Known as the 'praja yuddha nouka' (an appellation recognisable as 'people's warship' in languages from Telugu to Bangla), Gaddar—pronounced expiratorily as 'Ghadar' after its inspiration, the early 20th-century anticolonial Ghadar Party—was a Naxalite who segued from Left extremism to an anti-casteist Left-Centrism over a turbulent four decades.

An outstanding balladeer, he was as much a part of village-hopping, police-dodging agitprop as he was of mainstream cinema. At least two of his songs won Telugu film awards sponsored by the Andhra Pradesh government. His choice of the ballad as his vehicle of protest was telling. The ballad goes back to the Middle Ages but was polished into its modern form in the late 15th century. Throughout its history, it has been utterly subaltern, disdained by sophisticated sonneteers and sung by so-called "pot-poets"—socially rough and aesthetically questionable.



AFP

An outstanding balladeer, Gaddar was as much a part of village-hopping, police-dodging agitprop as he was of mainstream cinema

In 1985, stalked by the authorities after he resigned from his job as a minor official in a chemical factory, Gaddar went underground for five years. A wild-haired jongleur, he roamed the forests of Andhra Pradesh, Maharashtra, Madhya Pradesh, and Odisha—the infamous Red Corridor feared, and eventually antisepticised, by the State—spreading a revolutionary ideology that trickled its way to the higher educational institutions of the north and northwest.

This is as I remember him from my student days. But, moving in stride with Left confrontationism becoming less implacable, he mediated—along with revolutionary writers-poets Varavara Rao and Kalyan Rao—between the Extreme Left People's War group and the Andhra Pradesh government in 2004.

In 2017, he severed links with the Maoists altogether and declared himself an Ambedkarite. A committed anti-parliamentarian until then, he voted for the first time in 2018. A month after floating his Gaddar Praja Party in June 2023, he met Rahul Gandhi at a massive Congress rally, hugging him and kissing his cheeks. There was some talk about his joining the Congress, but it was cut short by his demise.

Through all this ideological reordering, not once did his lyrically radical and simple balladeering falter. A man of long-term idealism but shorter-term ideologies, he was, turn by turn, a Maoist, a Mandalite, an Ambedkarite, a Dalit, a Buddhist and, possibly, a liberal-centrist.

It is perhaps this complexity that so unnerves the present dispensation, the media, and the populace. To mention Gaddar, or to write a long obit of him, would mean having to deal with his entire anti-establishmentarian life. The establishment—just like every previous one—is traumatised by the faintest foreboding of criticism. This was what led, in 2015, to the arrests of three members of the Pune-based Kabir Kala Manch, a 21-year-old anti-establishment collective whose members refer to themselves as "cultural politicians".

A song critical of PM Narendra Modi and the Vishwa Hindu Parishad's Ram Rajya Rath Yatra led to the arrest in 2018 of Kovan (S Sivadas), a Leftist folk singer from Tamil Nadu and a functionary of the People's Art and Literary Association. It was what had provoked police action on the studios that the Kashmiri street rapper MC Kash (Roushan Illahi) frequented after the release of his "anthem of dissent", I Protest. According to him, in August 2016, the Bengaluru Police shut down his show, on the daily tribulations of Kashmiris, by cutting off the mic.

The effect of this unmollifiable statal animus towards art has been the creation of a wasteland—a desolation in which lies buried India's creative soul.

The new terminology of "whataboutery" is used for the ruling party as it asks, "What about the violence elsewhere?" Is violence in Rajasthan or Chhattisgarh justification for what is currently happening in Manipur? The public is not a fool. Adhir suspended from LS, remarks on PM expunged

PREETHA NAIR @New Delhi

IMMEDIATELY after the Modi government won the no-confidence motion on Thursday, Congress MP and Leader of Opposition in Lok Sabha Adhir Ranjan Chowdhury was suspended from the lower house for "unruly" behaviour. The motion on suspension was moved by Parliamentary Affairs Minister Pralhad Joshi.

Moving the motion, Joshi said, "This House having taken the serious note of the gross, deliberate and repeated misconduct of Adhir Ranjan Chowdhury in utter disregard to the House and authority of Chair resolves that the matter of his misconduct be referred to Committee of Privileges for the further investigation and that Adhir Ranjan Chowdhury be suspended from the service of the House till the committee submits its report."

Speaking on the discussion on the no-confidence motion, Chowdhury compared Prime Minister Narendra Modi with fugitive business tycoon Nirav Modi and blind king Dhritarashtra in Mahabharata. He made the references in the context of the violence against women in Manipur. The comments drew strong protest from the treasury bench, which demanded that the remarks should be expunged.

BJP MP Virendra Singh Mast even threatened to move towards Chowdhury aggressively.

Congress MP Adhir Ranjan Chowdhury speaks during the discussion on the no-confidence motion in the Lok Sabha on Thursday | PTI

Objecting to Chowdhury's remarks, Joshi said "the Prime Minister is the highest authority" and also cited Rule 352 (5) seeking expunging of his remarks. Speaker Om Birla then said that his remarks will be expunged from records.

During his speech, Chowdhury said that the power of a no-confidence motion brought the PM to Parliament today. "We were forced to bring this no-confidence motion. We were only demanding that PM Modi should come to the Parliament and speak on Manipur issue. The issue has attracted attention globally. It was discussed in the European Parliament and in the US also," he said.

Taking on the BJP government over the Manipur violence, TMC MP Mahua Moitra said that ethnic violence on this scale was not witnessed in any state since many decades.

Congress submits privilege notice against Amit Shah for 'misleading' House on Kalawati

The Congress on Thursday submitted a notice in the Lok Sabha against an alleged breach of privilege by Home Minister Amit Shah, accusing him of misleading Parliament on the story of farm widow Kalawati Bandurkar. The notice was given to Speaker Om Birla by Congress whip Manickam Tagore. "I submitted a privilege motion against Amit Shah for misleading Parliament yesterday on Kalawati story," Tagore said on X (formerly Twitter). During the debate on the no-confidence motion on Wednesday, Shah mentioned the story of a poor woman, Kalawati. Shah said the Modi government got a home for the widow. Gandhi had visited Bandurkar's house in 2008 after her husband committed suicide following a farm crisis in Maharashtra's Vidarbha. Countering Shah's claims, Congress shared a video of the farmer, in which Kalawati said that Rahul Gandhi had helped her.

The number of Electric Vehicles (EVs) in the country is growing more rapidly than that of the non-electric vehicles, but the number of registered EVs at present is still not even one per cent of the non-EVs, Minister for Road Transport and Highways Nitin Gadkari informed Rajya Sabha. In the last 10 years, the registration of EVs across states has increased by more than 50 times while India has witnessed just 2.5 times jump in registration of non-EVs during the same period, he said.

'SET TO ELIMINATE LYMPHATIC FILARIASIS'

India is committed to eliminating Lymphatic Filariasis, a neglected tropical disease, by 2027, three years ahead of the global target, said Union Minister for Health and Family Welfare Mansukh Mandaviya on Thursday. He said that the eradication will be done by incorporating awareness generation and ensuring communication campaigns at villages and panchayats. The second phase of the nationwide campaign began on Thursday and will cover 81 districts in nine endemic states, he said.

MAHUA: INDIA NOW 'TUM ABHI CHUP RAHO REPUBLIC'

TMC MP Mahua Moitra launched a stinging attack on the Centre on Thursday. She said the opposition's no-confidence motion was actually a "have confidence in INDIA motion" and was aimed at breaking the "omerta" on Manipur. During the debate on the no-confidence motion, Moitra said the Manipur issue is "mired in silence" in the government's "whataboutery and false equivalences". "We are here to ask questions in our 'tum abhi chup raho republic', where the honourable PM tells the governor 'chup raho', where we as elected MPs in this House are routinely told 'chup raho'," she said.

FM attacks DMK , recalls how Jaya's saree was pulled

PREETHA NAIR @ New Delhi

THE debate in Lok Sabh on the no-confidence motion on Thursday saw Union Finance Minister Nirmala Sitharaman taking jibes at the ruling DMK government in Tamil Nadu on the issue of women's safety.

Attacking the DMK in her speech, Sitharaman recalled an incident wherein former Tamil Nadu's former chief minister Jayalalithaa's saree was pulled in the assembly in 1989.

Countering DMK MP Kanimozhi's comments on sexual violence against women in Manipur, Sitharaman said, "You speak of the Kaurava Sabha, of Draupadi. Have you forgotten Jayalalithaa? I agree that women are suffering, be it in Manipur or Rajasthan or Delhi, we have to take it seriously, but there should be no politics over it," said the minister.

Sitharaman then recalled the incident, which occurred in TN Assembly on March 25, 1989, as Jayalalithaa's saree was pulled in Tamil Nadu assembly. "She was a leader of the opposition. DMK members heckled and laughed at her."

"Jayalalithaa's saree was pulled. The DMK members who were seated there heckled her and laughed at her... Has the DMK forgotten Jayalalithaa? You pulled her saree, you demeaned her. That day Jayalalithaa took an oath that she will never come to the House unless she becomes the CM. Two years later, she returned as the CM," Sitharaman said.

The minister also targeted Kanimozhi for her remarks on the installation of the Sengol in the new Parliament House. "Was the Tamil pride not hurt when the Sengol was used as a walking stick of a former PM and kept in a private museum? Narendra Modi restored it to its glory," she said.

The minister also took exception to the DMK's allegation that the Centre is trying to impose Hindi. "Prime Minister is implementing the spirit of Silapathikaram in its spirit. Maposi wrote in 1951 that we are Tamils, not Dravidians; our motherland is Tamilakam, not Dravidam. He talks of India's oneness, but a separatist language influences the kind of language that Kanimozhi speaks," she said.

J&K's sovereignty ceded completely to Union: SC

SHRUTI KAKKAR @ New Delhi

THE Supreme Court constitution bench hearing pleas challenging the abrogation of Article 370 for the fifth day on Thursday observed that Jammu and Kashmir's sovereignty was ceded completely to the Union of India. There are various shades of concurrence in the Constitution, but the imposition of fetters on Parliament's legislative power did not dilute the dominion of India's sovereignty over states, it said.

The five-judge bench led by Chief Justice CJI DY Chandrachud stressed that the inclusion of J&K in Article 1 of the Constitution meant that the "transfer of sovereignty" was complete. "Therefore we can't read the post Article 370 constitution as somehow a document that retains some elements of sovereignty in J&K. Our notions of parliamentary exclusion from states have been an evolving exercise, but one thing is clear, the sovereignty was ceded completely to the Union," the bench said.

The remarks were made after the bench considered Senior Advocate Shah Zafar's contention that J&K could be integrated completely only after signing of the merger agreement and revocation of Article 370 as well as the Instrument of Accession. "There was no conditional surrender of sovereignty to the dominion of India. The surrender of sovereignty was absolutely complete. Only once the same was unquestionably and fully vested with the dominion of India can the restraints that would apply would be in the power of Parliament to enact legislation," it said.

The court also termed the contention of Article 370 acquiring a permanent character as "dangerous", It said the issue, which required adjudication, was related to the correctness of the methodology adopted.

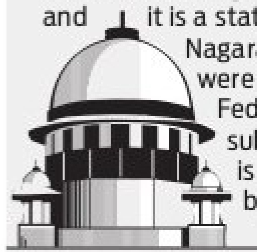
'Reintegration into society right of accused'



Considering the pleas challenging the remission granted to 11 convicts in the Bilkis Bano case, the Supreme Court on Thursday opined that reintegration of accused in a society is a constitutional right. "Reintegration of accused in society is a constitutional right. Remission is mentioned in Articles 161 & 72 and it is a statutory right," a bench of Justices BV Nagarathna and Ujjal Bhuyan remarked. The remarks were made by the bench after considering National Federation of Women's counsel Nizam Pasha's submission that entertaining remission requests is a part of an exercise of constitutional powers by the executive, not a right in itself.

SC launches portal to ease entry of visitors

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ New Delhi

IN A bid to ease the entry of visitors, litigants and journalists to the country's top court, the Supreme Court, under the aegis of Chief Justice DY Chandrachud, launched the online portal 'SuSwagatam', which would enable them to apply for an electronic pass without waiting in long queues.

The CJI, before commencing the hearing of pleas challenging the abrogation of Article 370, announced the launch.

"One can take the pass an evening prior. The moment the person comes to the security counter, the entire pass details will be reflected before CISF. We have called it SuSwagatam. The portal was tested on a pilot basis from July 25," the CJI said.

Japan attaches importance to ties with India & Sri Lanka, says envoy

YESHI SELI @ New Delhi

IN an ambassador-level trilateral meeting, India, Japan and Sri Lanka spoke about ways to forge ties that would lead to a free and open Indo-Pacific.

"The Japanese Prime Minister Fumio Kishida had highlighted South Asia as one of the major pillars in Free and Open Indo Pacific. Japan attaches primary importance to ties with India and Sri Lanka as they are indispensable partners," Japanese Ambassador to India, Hiroshi Suzuki, said in Delhi on Thursday at the opening session.

Suzuki also said that they attached a lot of importance to transparent and equitable debt restructuring where all countries take part. He also complimented India's financial support to Sri Lanka, which helped in their debt restructuring. There should be equal treatment for all creditor countries when it comes to Sri Lanka's debt restructuring, he added.

Meanwhile, Sri Lankan Ambassador Milinda Moragoda said that India played a significant role in Sri Lanka's recovery. "The role of private sectors from both India and Japan has to be enhanced by way of more investments in Sri Lanka. There are four pivotal collaboration areas between India, Japan and Sri Lanka. These include low-carbon power generation, energy hub development, logistics and connectivity and people-to-people contacts. These collaborations aim to strengthen Sri Lanka's connectivity and trade potential as well as promoting tourism, education, training and skills development," said Moragoda.

Meanwhile, Puneet Agrawal, Joint Secretary (Indian Ocean Region), Ministry of External Affairs, said that connectivity lay at the core of India's approach to economic revival of Sri Lanka. "In terms of maritime connectivity we are focused on resumption of passenger ferry service between India and Sri Lanka," he added.

Railways plans 35 hydrogen-powered trains to run across 8 heritage routes

RAJESH KUMAR THAKUR @ New Delhi

THE Indian Railways, after a long feasibility study, has started working on its 'Hydrogen for Heritage' scheme, under which it would use hydrogen to fuel tourist trains across heritage hill tracks.

To achieve this first-of-its-kind eco-friendly move, the Railways has planned to acquire and operate hydrogen trains on railway routes across environmentally sensitive hilly terrains with potential for tourism.

The Standing Committee on Railways (2022-23) of 17th Lok Sabha, in its report, has mentioned that the railways has proposed to run 35 hydrogen trains at an estimated cost of ₹80 crore per train and ground infrastructure of ₹70 crore per route. The report further states, "As a pilot project for retro fitment of hydrogen fuel cell on existing diesel electrical multiple units (DEMU), rake with ground infrastructure has been planned to fund on Jind-Sonipat section of northern railway at a cost of ₹111.83 crore. In this regard, the committee had felt that once the same is operational, it would go a long way and in the right direction towards green energy."

Appreciating the initiative, the committee said that the railways also has to make suitable preparedness and act vigorously to fulfil the concept.

Quoting details, the committee report has stated that the Indian Railways has taken a lead by awarding a contract to convert a 1,200 KW DEMU with hydrogen fuel cell-based distributed power rolling stick.

"The field trials of the first prototype are slated to commence from June 2024 and the Indian Railways envisages manufacturing of train sets with fuel cell-based propulsion system to provide traction energy from hydrogen fuel cell," reads the report submitted in the Lok Sabha recently.

The 35 train-set rakes, each having six cars, have been sanctioned in Rolling Stock Programme 2023-24 for eight heritage routes. The sleeted heritage rail routes on which the hydrogen-fuelled trains will run are — the Matheran Hill Railway, Darjeeling Himalaya Railway, Kalka Shimla Railway, the Kangra Valley, the Bilmora Waghai, the Patapalpani Kalakund, Nilgiri Mountain railways and Marwar-Goram ghat railway.

35 trains with 6 cars each will run on 8 heritage routes:

- Matheran Hill Railway
- Darjeeling Himalaya Railway
- Kalka Shimla Railway
- Kangra Valley
- Bilmora Waghai
- Patapalpani Kalakund
- Nilgiri Mountain Railways
- Marwar-Goram ghat railway

NCPCR to brainstorm to prevent cyber trafficking

KAVITA BAJELI-DATT @ New Delhi

A MINOR girl from West Bengal, whose Instagram reels received many impressions on social media, one day got an 'offer' to act in a Hindi film. She readily accepted the offer, but soon found to her shock that the proposal was a bait to lure her into prostitution. It was a narrow escape for her. But many such girls fall prey to miscreants on social media looking for vulnerable profiles.

The rising number of such cases has caught the attention of the National Commission for Protection of Child Rights (NCPCR). The child rights body will be holding a meeting of all stakeholders on August 21 to deal with the problem of social media becoming a 'tool for trafficking.' The meeting aims to examine the existing mechanism and develop preventive measures to ensure the safety of children in the cyber world.

In a letter to all the stakeholders, including the IT and telecom ministry, NCPCR chairperson Priyank Kanoongo said, "The commission has received information regarding several alarming incidents where minor children have been lured and further been made victim to offences like online grooming for various unlawful activities, trafficking, online sexual abuse and online harassment by people who they meet on social media websites like Facebook, Instagram and Twitter."

He further said the commission had received complaints and reports on the availability of child sexual abuse material on various social media platforms and web pages.

Speaking to this paper, Kanoongo said that in the last two years, they have encountered several cases where minor girls have been lured through social media, especially Instagram.

"It is important to note that these incidents are now on the rise due to the easy access of the unmonitored or unsupervised Internet and social media platforms," Kanoongo said.

"In the West Bengal incident, the girl was lucky that the accused was nabbed in time. In another incident, we found a body of a minor girl similarly lured through social media. Several such instances have come to light. Social media has now become the tool for traffickers," he added.

Kanoongo said young children posting videos and reels online are unaware that they are easy preys for online stalking and online grooming for unlawful activities. "We want cyberspace to be a safe space for minors. It is thus necessary to examine and develop a framework and mechanism to safeguard them," he added.

In his letter, the NCPCR head has said that the commission "deems it appropriate for a deliberation to examine and review framework/mechanism under various laws, based on the inputs from all the stakeholders, and recommend measures for their effective implementation."

"Such framework will not only cater to the challenges faced by the authorities, but also lay down preventive measures to safeguard children," the letter said. Major Internet Service Providers have also been invited to attend the meeting.

Lured online

The National Commission for Protection of Child Rights has received information regarding several alarming incidents where minor children have been lured and been made victim to offences like online grooming for various unlawful activities, trafficking, online sexual abuse and online harassment by people who they meet on social media sites like Facebook and Instagram.

Haryana cops say violence around Gurugram not pre-planned, rather random flare-ups

TWO suspects, wanted for their alleged involvement in Nuh communal clashes in which six people died and 88 were injured, were today arrested after a brief encounter with the Haryana Police. They were allegedly returning to Haryana from Rajasthan where they were hiding for some days, police said.

Gurugram Police Commissioner Kala Ramachandran said violence in areas like Badshahpur, Sohna, and Pataudi were not pre-planned but random flare-ups. "To date the interrogation and investigation have revealed it was all random. We have a case when men were having drinks and then decided to participate in communal flare-up," she said.

She said the situation was normal in Gurugram city though miscreants have tried to ignite communal hatred. The police have registered 37 cases in the communal flare-up and of the 93 detained, 80 have been released on bail.

About action against AAP leader Javed Ahmed, the prime accused in the murder of a Bajrang Dal activist during Nuh violence, she said investigations were on. "We cannot divulge the details of investigations. Further details will be revealed in due course," she said. To ensure a thorough investigation into the communal clashes, a special investigation team has been formed to probe the Sector-57 mosque arson case in which an Imam, Muhammad Saad was killed.

The Haryana Police is on the lookout for suspects who allegedly came from Rajasthan and rioted, targeting the cow vigilantes to "avenge" the killing of two Muslim youths, Nasir and Junaid, belonging to Rajasthan earlier this year.

Haryana Police said at least a dozen social media groups have been traced to Pakistan.

Sources said the two suspects, Munfeed Khan and Saikul Khan of Gawarka village in Tauru, tried to evade a police team and were intercepted near a hillock of Sakho village in Tauru area of Nuh district. "The suspects opened fire at the police team. One of them was injured in the leg when the police fired back. One country-made gun, a pistol and a motorbike were seized from them.

Munfeed, who has a bullet injury in his leg, has been admitted to Nalhar Medical College for treatment, Mukesh Kumar, DSP of Tauru, told the media.

Police spokesperson Krishna Kumar said the encounter lasted about an hour.

Sources said the police cyber cell has traced a dozen social media groups to Pakistan. These groups were being run on WhatsApp, Facebook, Twitter and Telegram with thousands of followers from across the Mewat region of Haryana and Rajasthan and were allegedly spreading hatred. Most of the suspects held were active members of these groups.

"They declared cow vigilantes as 'kafirs' and urged the local Meo community to punish them. Though the chats have been deleted by majority we are trying to retrieve the data. The Rajasthan Police are also looking into similar accounts with numerous followers in Alwar and Bharatpur districts,'' said a police official.

It is learnt that a YouTube account in the name of 'Ahsan Mewati Pakistani' with 273 videos and 80,000 followers was spreading unrest. It has now been taken down.

Sources said of the arrested, four are from Ghatmika village of Nasir and Junaid who were allegedly killed by cow vigilantes. The police are in search of at least 50 others who hailed from Alwar and Bharatpur. The suspects have reportedly confessed to having carried out arson in order to avenge the killing of two Muslim allegedly by cow vigilantes, including Monu Manesar. They had made separate WhatsApp groups to carry out arson, asking members to "avenge" the killings.

Media barred from sharing 'unofficial' info on ASI survey

NAMITA BAJPAI @ Lucknow

IN a significant decision, the Varanasi district court has restrained the electronic and print media from publishing any "unofficial detail" about the ongoing scientific investigation by the Archaeological Survey of India (ASI) on Gyanvapi mosque premises.

The court ordered the ASI officials engaged in survey not to share any information about the survey to any print, electronic or social media platforms. It directed counsels of plaintiffs, defendants, district government advocates, civil and other officers neither to share any information regarding the survey with any print, electronic or social media nor to disseminate the details so that the survey report could be produced before the court.

Passing the order on Thursday, the Varanasi district court also issued directives to the Hindu plaintiffs of the Shringar Gauri worship suit of 2022 as well as to ASI officials to abstain from giving any statement regarding the ongoing survey to media.

"If the print media, electronic media or social wrongly publishes any news item regarding the survey without official information, despite no information being provided by the ASI, plaintiff side and defendant side, then necessary action will be taken against them as per the law," said the district judge in his order.

Varanasi district judge Dr AK Vishvesha passed the order while hearing an application filed by Anjuman Intezamia Masajid, the mosque management committee, seeking restraint on print and electronic media from publishing 'false news' about the ongoing ASI survey on mosque premises.

The AIM had moved the application on Wednesday associated with pending suit over the round-the-year worship rights of Shringar Gauri and other deities on mosque premises filed by four Hindu women plaintiffs.

After MP, U'khand offers MBBS course in Hindi

From the new admission session, students will have the option to study MBBS in Hindi language in the state. Uttarakhand is the second state after Madhya Pradesh, to offer MBBS courses in Hindi in addition to English. Speaking to this newspaper, Kuldeep Rawat, representative of state Higher Education and Health Minister Dr Dhan Singh Rawat, said "Preparations have been completed for the rollout." Union Health Minister Mansukh Mandaviya will launch the course by the end of the month, being implemented after study by a panel of the Uttarakhand Medical Education Department.

Nomination process for Bageshwar bypoll begins

The by-election to the Bageshwar Assembly constituency, which fell vacant following the death of cabinet minister Chandan Ramdas, will be held on September 5. A total of 1,18,225 voters will elect their new MLA, out of which the number of service voters is 2,207, while 57 are women voters. Nominations will be filed from August 10 to 17, while the scrutiny of nomination papers will be done on November 18. District Election Officer Anuradha Pal said, "This time, nine booths of the assembly constituency are without communication, while connectivity will be provided through wireless sets." Counting of votes will take place on September 8.

SC on Manipur: Probe charges of collusion of cops in sexual violence

SHRUTI KAKKAR @ New Delhi

TAKING note of the tardy pace by the investigating machinery in the strife-torn Manipur and remarking that lapses in the process does not bode well for the state, the Supreme Court, in a detailed order uploaded on Thursday, directed former DGP Maharashtra Dattatray Padsalgikar to supervise the investigation that is under the CBI in the 11 FIRs dealing with offences against women and children and the 42 state appointed SITs.

The court has also directed him to probe into the allegations of certain police officers colluding with perpetrators of sexual violence.

A bench of CJI DY Chandrachud, Justices JB Pardiwala and Manoj Mishra has also directed the MHA to place Dy SP rank five officers out of which one should be women at least of Dy SP rank from the states of Rajasthan, Madhya Pradesh, Jharkhand, Odisha and GNCTD. Expressing anguish with regards to the manner in which women were subjected to grave acts of sexual violence in the course of sectarian strife, the bench in the 36-page order has tasked the three member committee comprising former women HC judges Gita Mittal, Shalini P Joshi and Asha Menon to enquire into the nature of violence against women that occurred in the state from all available sources.

Additionally, the committee has been tasked to submit a report on the steps which are required to meet the needs of the survivors including measures for dealing with rape trauma, providing social, economic and psychological support.

The court has asked the former DGP and three member committee to submit a report in two months. With a view to ensure fair probe by the 42 state SITs, the court also asked the MHA to make available one police officer from Rajasthan, MP, Odisha, Jharkhand, Maharashtra and GNCTD and also deputy 14 SP officers to be in-charge of the SITs.

2nd zero FIR as another woman gang-raped

PRASANTA MAZUMDAR @ Guwahati

DAYS after a strip-parade video from Manipur went viral, a 37-year-old married woman in the state has filed a 'zero FIR' with the police, alleging she was gang-raped by "Kuki miscreants" in the hill district of Churachandpur on May 3, the day the ethnic violence broke out.

The FIR was lodged with the Women Police Station, Bishnupur on August 9.

The police registered a case under IPC sections 376D (gang-rape), 354 (assault or criminal force to woman), 120B (criminal conspiracy) and 34 (acts done by several persons in furtherance of common intention). However, as the alleged crime was committed in Churachandpur, the case was transferred to Women Police Station, Churachandpur for investigation. A zero FIR can be filed at any police station.

According to the woman's complaint, the incident occurred around 6:30 pm on that fateful day when the Kuki miscreants started burning down her house and the houses of her neighbours. She said she cried for help but nobody came forward.

9 die in rains, rising level of Tehri lake triggers panic among villagers

NARENDRA SETHI @ Dehradun

Rescue personnel conduct a search following landslides in Rudraprayag | PTI

WITH the recovery of two more bodies in Gaurikund landslide on Thursday, nine people have died in the past 24 hours in persistent rains and landslides in Uttarakhand, officials said.

Panic gripped New Tehri villages as the water level of the Tehri Lake, spread over 42 sq km, reached 816 meters.

The Tehri district disaster management office said: "There is also a danger of floods in New Tehri. Though the water level of Tehri Lake is 14 metres less than its total capacity height of 830 meters, the potential risk of landslides has increased in many villages located on the banks of the lake.

Sources in the state police said a car carrying four youths to their home from Gumkhal Market in Pauri area fell into a deep ditch due to bad road and rain. SDRF personnel entered a deep gorge at night to reach the crashed vehicle. Three people in the vehicle died on the spot, while a search is on for the fourth person.

In Rishikesh's Khara Spring area, most of the houses were flooded due to the rise in the water level following excessive rains. An SDRF team evacuated about 50 people from the submerged houses and shifted them to a safe place by a raft.

"Due to incessant rains, a wall collapsed near Chaurasi Kutia in Laxman Jhula area in which two persons were buried, following which the body of an 84-year-old man named Gajanan, a resident of Rajasthan, was recovered after a search by the SDRF," said Inspector Kavinder Sajwan.

A 12-year-old girl died after water entered her house in Majrigrant, a gram panchayat of Doiwala in Dehradun district on Wednesday night, police said. Ajay Kohli, the girl's father, said the sudden inflow of water at night resulted in the cave-in of an adjacent house.

"Since June 1, the SDRF has rescued 1,226 people in various incidents," said SDRF Commandant Manikant Mishra.

Meanwhile, the outbreak of land submergence in the disaster-hit Joshimath town does not seem to end. Now, a 500-metre landslide has occurred below Selang in Marwari Helang bypass in the foothills of the town, while it does not pose any threat to Selang yet. Land submergence in Joshimath's Sunil ward has threatened buildings, affecting 16 families, prompting the administration to direct five affected families to stay in relief camps.

Setback to Shinde as Sena MLA's son booked for abducting music firm chief

SUDHIR SURYAWANSHI @ Mumbai

THE Mumbai Police on Thursday booked the son of Shiv Sena (Shinde) MLA Prakash Surve and 13 others for kidnapping the CEO of a music company. The culprits allegedly abducted the complainant at gunpoint. The MLA's son Raj Surve has not been arrested.

The case was lodged after the music company CEO Rajkumar Singh filed a complaint. It is alleged that he was threatened, at the MLA's office, on behalf of Manoj Mishra, the owner of another music company to settle a financial dispute between the two businessmen.

On Thursday, the police arrested Manoj Mishra and two other accused persons, while hunt is on for the others.

As per the FIR, the complainant, whose company lends loans to other firms, had a financial dispute with Mishra. Mishra had availed loans from the complainant and had also signed an agreement. Mishra, however, used the loan funds for other purposes instead of expanding his business. He allegedly wanted to end the agreement but the complainant demanded his money back.

On August 9, the complainant was allegedly threatened over the phone and later abducted from his office at gunpoint by Raj Surve's men. The police have collected CCTV footage from the complainant's office that purportedly shows 10-15 people forcibly entering his office, assaulting the staff, and forcibly taking him away.

Later, the complainant's family approached the police and managed to rescue him, following which a case was registered against Mishra, and several others on charges of assault, kidnapping and threatening

Scribe thrashed by another MLA's aides

Days after an eight-year-old girl was raped and murdered by her 19-year-old neighbour, a journalist from Maharashtra's Jalgaon was assaulted by supporters of Shiv Sena (Shinde) MLA Kishor Patil for raising the issue. Journalist Sandeep Mahajan, who runs his own YouTube channel and daily Dyay, had reported that the MLA and police had allegedly tried to suppress the case after state Chief Minister Eknath Shinde had met with the parents of the girl. Mahajan had allegedly that Shinde's meeting as bid to eyewash the public. Following this, MLA Kishor Patil allegedly called Mahajan and abused him over the phone. The next day, when he was asked about it, he defended himself, saying he has not done anything wrong. Mahajan was later assaulted by supporters of the MLA, the video of which had went viral. Meanwhile, Opposition leaders have come down heavily on the assault and demanded an FIR be filed against the MLA

PIN code 193224: No snail mail swan song yet at LoC

FAYAZ WANI @ Srinagar

> The post office has recently become an attraction for tourists, who are visiting Keran after the border area was relatively demilitarized and opened to visitors last year — Tufail Ahmed Bhat, resident

THE first post office in India, which was, until recently, referred to as the last post office, is located on the banks of Kishenganga river near the Line of Control (LoC) in Keran sector of Jammu and Kashmir.

The post office, bearing PIN code 193224, is run by a post master and three mail runners. It was known as the last post office of the country until recently. Now the signboard near it describes it as the "First Post Office of India".

The post office is located right on the edge of Pak-occupied-Kashmir (PoK) where the LoC divides the anxious nations. A stream passes between, known as Kishenganga river on one side of the LoC and Neelum river on the other. On the Indian bank of the river, stands the post office

With the border ceasefire between India and Pakistan troops undisturbed in the past two years, the post master Shakir Bhat and three mail runners are distributing the mails with significant ease, without the fear of being caught in border fire-fight or shelling.

Earlier, mail runners were hesitant in delivering mail to the army posted at the LoC and to the local population out of the fear of the barrage of bullets that were exchanged across the border occasionally.

The thawing of ice between India and Pakistan, with decreasing cross-border hostilities between the two nations, has made the life of the locals relatively easier. Those working at the post office echoed a similar relief.

It is a historic post office, being operational even before the two countries were divided in hate in 1947.The post office did not refrain from its duties towards the people and troops even as the hostilities between Indian and Pakistan forces reached its peak in 1965, 1971 and 1998 Kargil wars between the two nuclear-armed neighbouring states.

The post office has been functioning out of the house of post master Shakir ever since 1993, when the post office was washed away in the flash floods. A local Tufail Ahmed Bhat said that the post office mostly received mails and speed posts for and from army personnel posted at the LoC.

It takes three days for speed posts to reach the Keran post office, from where post master Shakir and the three mail runners take them to their destination without fail.

He said the post office has recently become an attraction for tourists, who are visiting Keran after the border area was relatively demilitarized and opened to visitors last year.

After the improvement in ground situation in J&K and cessation of India-Pakistan hostilities at the LoC, the authorities have thrown open many border areas including Keran, Karnah, Uri, Gurez, etc to visitors. Earlier, these border areas used to be completely inaccessible to outsiders and even for the local population.

Pakistan's Prime Minister Shehbaz Sharif addresses lawmakers during the last session of current parliament in Islamabad, Pakistan on Wednesday | AP

Pak Assembly dissolved after Sharif's advice

ISLAMABAD

PAKISTAN President Arif Alvi formally dissolved the National Assembly three days ahead of its mandated period following which outgoing PM Shehbaz Sharif held talks with the Leader of the opposition on Thursday over the nomination for a caretaker premier to conduct the general elections.

Sharif will continue to perform his duties as the premier until the appointment of a caretaker PM. A notification issued by the Presidential Palace on Wednesday late night said the National Assembly was dissolved under Article 58 of the Constitution. According to Article 58, if the President fails to dissolve the assembly within 48 hours after the Prime Minister has recommended so, the assembly automatically stands dissolved.

"The Prime Minister's advice at para 6 of the summary is approved," President Alvi said.

On Thursday, Sharif held formal consultations with the leader of the opposition in the National Assembly Raja Riaz over the nomination for the caretaker premier at the Prime Minister's House. Talking to reporters outside the Prime Minister's House, Riaz said the hour-long meeting with PM Sharif was held in a cordial environment. "I will deliberate on the names given by the PM, and similarly, the PM sahib will go through the names given by me, a meeting will be held again tomorrow (Friday)," he was quoted as saying by Dawn newspaper. He, however, refused to provide details but said six names came under discussion during today's meeting and all of them were 'respectable people.'

According to media reports, three names have been proposed, including two nominations, former diplomat Jalil Abbas Jilani and former chief justice of Pakistan Tassaduq Hussain Jilani, sent by the Pakistan Peoples Party (PPP) and Sindh Governor Kamran Tessori, by Muttahida Qaumi Movement-Pakistan (MQM-P), Geo TV reported. PTI

In deadliest wildfire in the US, at least 36 die in Hawaii

WAILUKU

WILDFIRES fuelled by a dry summer and strong winds from a passing hurricane killed 36 people and destroyed hundreds of homes and other buildings on the Hawaiian island of Maui, in the deadliest blaze in the US in years.

Rescuers searched on Thursday through the levelled, ashen homes and businesses of Lahaina, which dates to the 1700s, is the biggest town on the west side of the island and has long been a favourite destination of tourists. Firefighters still battled blazes on the island, as local officials prepared to evacuate thousands of visitors.

A mass evacuation effort will resume on Thursday morning for visitors and residents stranded just north Maui, officials said. Buses will pick up people in Kaanapali, north of Lahaina, taking visitors directly to the Kahului Airport and residents to a shelter in central Maui, the county of Maui announced on Facebook.

The fire started on Tuesday and took the island by surprise, racing through dry growth and leaving behind burned-out cars on once busy streets and smoking piles of rubble where historic buildings had stood. The flames left some people with mere minutes to act and led some to flee into the ocean.

At least 36 people have died, Maui County said, adding that no other details were available. Officials said earlier that 271 structures had been damaged or destroyed and dozens of people had been injured. The Coast Guard said it rescued 14 people who jumped into the water to escape flames and smoke, including two children. Among those injured were three persons with critical burns who were flown to Oahu. AP

Hawkish RBI maintains status quo

MPC maintains repo rate at 6.5%, retains its stance of withdrawal of accommodation

SACHIN KUMAR @Mumbai

THE Reserve Bank of India (RBI) on Thursday left the repo rate unchanged for the third time in a row but adopted a hawkish tone as inflation surged due to spike in the prices of food items.

The six-member Monetary Policy Committee (MPC) of the RBI, which is headed by Governor Shaktikanta Das, unanimously chose to maintain the benchmark repo rate at 6.5% and retained its stance of withdrawal of accommodation.

High food items compelled the central bank to revise its inflation projection upward to 5.4% for the current fiscal year from the earlier projection of 5.1%.

Announcing the bi-monthly monetary policy, Governor Shaktikanta Das said that the central bank will remain watchful of the inflation and remains resolute in its commitment to align inflation to the targeted level.

"Considering this confluence of factors, the MPC decided to remain watchful and evaluate the emerging situation. Consequently, the MPC decided to keep the policy repo rate unchanged at 6.50 per cent with preparedness to act, should the situation so warrant. The MPC remains resolute in its commitment to aligning inflation to the 4 percent target and anchoring inflation expectations," said Das on Thursday.

Headline inflation, after reaching a low of 4.3 percent in May 2023, rose in June to 4.8 percent and is expected to surge during July-August led by vegetable prices.

According to governor, the vegetable price shock may reverse quickly, but possible El Nino weather conditions along with global food prices need to be watched closely against the backdrop of a skewed southwest monsoon so far.

"Going by the past trends, vegetable prices may see a significant correction after a few months. The prospects of kharif crops have brightened, thanks to improvement in the progress of the monsoon. Uncertainties, however, remain on domestic food price outlook due to sudden weather events and possible El Nino conditions in August and beyond," said the governor. "Bringing headline inflation within the tolerance band is not enough; we need to remain firmly focused on aligning inflation to the target of 4 percent," he added.

RBI'S FIGHT TO TAME INFLATION

Announcing the bi-monthly monetary policy, Governor Shaktikanta Das said that the central bank will remain watchful of the inflation and remains resolute in its commitment to align inflation to the targeted level. High food prices compelled RBI to revise its inflation projection upward to 5.4% for the current fiscal year from the earlier projection of 5.1%.

INCREMENTAL CRR TO SUCK OUT ₹1 L CRORE

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @Mumbai

THE Reserve Bank of India's (RBI) decision to impose a 10% incremental cash reserve ratio (ICRR) for a limited period will suck out more than ₹1 lakh crore from the banking system.

The move was the best option under the current circumstances to drain excess liquidity, said the RBI Governor Shaktikanta Das on Thursday. The RBI on Thursday announced that banks have to maintain a 10% ICRR from August 12 as part of the central bank's efforts to drain excess liquidity from the banking system following the withdrawal of the ₹2,000 currency note. "The move will suck out a little over ₹1 lakh crore of excess liquidity from the system," Das said.

One of the reasons for rise in liquidity is that over 90% of ₹3.6 lakh crore of the ₹2,000 banknotes withdrawn on May 19, have come back to banks, Das said. As per RBI data, at ₹2.48 lakh crore, surplus liquidity in the system in August was at a 14 month high, highest since June 2022. He assured that the public won't face crunch as they prepare for long festive season nor will the system and industry face liquidity issue to pay advance tax (September 15) or GST (Sept 20).

Replying to a query on Russian investment in government securities, the governor said the RBI is not unduly concerned about Russian investments in Indian government bonds. Without sharing the details of the trade surplus invested by Russian entities in government securities, Das underlined that trade relations between the two countries are for the long term and there is no reason to fear a pullout of the money. "Its not about which we are really unduly concerned. We are not concerned unduly because market has its estimates. So far as we are concerned, it is not going to cause any (impact)."

NCLT approves Zee-Sony merger; ZEEL share jumps more than 16%

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @New Delhi

THE National Company Law Tribunal (NCLT) on Thursday approved merger of Zee Entertainment and Sony Pictures Networks India (SPNI). This will clear path to create a $10 billion media behemoth, which was first announced in September 2021.

The Mumbai bench of NCLT, comprising H V Subba Rao and Madhu Sinha, reserved the judgment after objections raised by multiple creditors such as Axis Finance, JC Flower Asset Reconstruction Co, IDBI Bank, Imax Corp, and IDBI Trusteeship. The tribunal has also dismissed all objections regarding the merger.

"We wish to inform you that the NCLT, Mumbai Bench has today approved the composite scheme of arrangement amongst Zee Entertainment Enterprises Limited, Bangla Entertainment Private Limited and Culver Max Entertainment Private Limited (formerly known as Sony Pictures Networks India Private Limited)," said Zee in a regulatory filing on Thursday.

NCLT had initially reserved its verdict on the merger between Zee and Culver Max Entertainment on July 10. Zee Entertainment shares rallied after the announcement and settled the day at ₹281.45, up 16.18% from the previous closing price on the NSE. In September 2021, Sony Pictures Networks India (SPNI), a step-down subsidiary of Sony Corp, had first announced a proposed merger with Zee to create one of the country's largest entertainment networks. The proposed entity will have a market share of 26% in the domestic market.

Since then, the proposed merger was opposed by many parties but the scheme received all the necessary permissions from the stock exchanges, the Competition Commission of India (CCI) and the Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI). The fresh NCLT approval came after the market regulator Sebi prohibited Subhash Chandra, Chairman of Essel Group, and his son Punit Goenka in June this year from assuming directorial or major managerial positions in the merged entity due to alleged misuse of funds from Zee for personal gain.

LIC Q1 profit surges manifold due to changes in accounting

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @Mumbai

LIFE INSURANCE CORPORATION OF INDIA (LIC), country's largest insurer, on Thursday reported manifold rise in net profit to ₹9,544 crore, driven by transfer of ₹7,491.5 crore of surplus from non-participatory funds to shareholders' account and a healthy rise in income on investments.

It had posted a standalone profit of ₹682.88 crore in the corresponding quarter last year. The insurer's income from investments grew 30% to ₹90,309 crore in the April-June quarter from ₹69,571 crore same quarter previous fiscal.

LIC's solvency margin, which indicates its financial strength, improved slightly to 1.89%, up from 1.88% in the same quarter last year. On the asset quality front, gross non-performing assets ratio eased to 2.48% from 5.84% in the same period a year ago. "During the first quarter of this financial year, we have achieved increase in our non-par product mix as a percentage of the overall individual business. Further, our efforts to improve persistency across cohorts are beginning to show results. Our overall expense ratio has become better and our margins are stable on year-on-year basis," said Siddhartha Mohanty, Chairperson, LIC.

"Simultaneously we continue to work on strategies for diversifying the channel mix. We believe we are on track to grow our business in a manner which creates superior value for all our stakeholders," he added. Total income rose to ₹1,88,749 crore for the quarter as against ₹1,68,881 crore in the year-ago period

In terms of market share measured by First Year Premium Income, LIC has maintained its leadership in Indian life insurance business with a market share of 61.42% for the quarter ended June 30.

FMCG

Adanis deny reports of stake sale in Wilmar

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @New Delhi

ADANI GROUP flagship company Adani Enterprises on Thursday issued a clarification on reports that it is selling its 44% stake in its joint venture with Singapore's Wilmar Group in FMCG company Adani Wilmar.

Adani Enterprises said in a filing that there is "no such event concerning the media report".

"We would like to clarify that as of now, there is no such event concerning the media report, which requires any disclosure from the company side in accordance with the Regulation 30 of SEBI Listing Regulations. In the event there is any development that requires disclosure under the Regulation 30 of the SEBI Listing Regulations, we will disclose the same in accordance with the regulatory requirements," said the company in response to a clarification that was sought from Adani Group on the reports.

According to reports, Adani Group has been considering a potential sale of its 44% stake in Adani Wilmar for a few months. Adani's shares are worth about $2.7 billion at the current share prices.

Gautam Adani and his family could retain a minority stake in a personal capacity following the sale, the report added. Adani Enterprises might also decide to keep its stake as the deliberations are still at an early stage.

Following the report, Shares of Adani Wilmar fell sharply on Wednesday and closed 4% lower. Adani Wilmar fell another 1.30% to close at Rs 373 apiece on Thursday.

Last week, Adani Wilmar, which owns the popular Fortuna brand, reported a loss of Rs 79 crore in the June quarter and its revenue also witnessed a decline.

BIG DEAL

HCLTech wins $2.1 billion deal from Verizon

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @Bengaluru

IT services firm HCLTech on Thursday announced signing of a new mega deal with an estimated new total contract value of $2.1 billion with Verizon Business. It expects the deal to have a positive revenue impact over the next six years beginning in November 2023.

HCLTech will be Verizon Business's primary collaborator in all deployments involving MNS globally for enterprise customers.

Verizon Business will continue to lead customer acquisition, sales, solutioning, overall planning and development with its customers. HCLTech will lead post-sale implementation and ongoing support. To execute the tightly coordinated balance of responsibilities at enterprise scale, a group of Verizon Business Global Customer Operations staff will transition to HCLTech, it said in a BSE filing. "HCLTech is a widely recognised industry leader for Managed Network Services, and with their IT service expertise and ongoing support of our enterprise networking deployments, Verizon Business can modernise our service delivery and heighten our focus on helping customers incorporate next-generation technology like 5G, SD-WAN and SASE into their operations and their own customer offerings," said Kyle Malady, CEO, Verizon Business.

"IT/OT convergence is the future of data-centric business operations, and with the fast pace of digitalisation, customers need a well-coordinated delivery framework to realise that future," he added. "Managed Network Services is core to our business, and we're proud to collaborate with Verizon Business to lead MNS in all of their network deployments, modernisation and operations for private enterprise," said C Vijayakumar, CEO and MD, HCLTech.

Air India rebranded, Maharaja to remain part of the airline

ARSHAD KHAN @New Delhi

New logo inspired by peak of gold window frame

According to Air India, the new logo which is inspired by the peak of the gold window frame, signifies limitless possibilities and the airline's confident outlook for the future. The airline management also clarified that the iconic 'Maharaja', which has served as Air India's mascot for decades, will continue to be part of the airline's journey in future

TATA GROUP on Thursday unveiled the new logo symbol - 'The Vista' – for Air India to replace the existing one which has a red swan along with a Konark Chakra.

According to Air India, the new logo which is inspired by the peak of the gold window frame, signifies limitless possibilities and the airline's confident outlook for the future.

The airline management also clarified that the iconic 'Maharaja', which has served as Air India's mascot for decades, will continue to be part of the airline's journey into the future.

Tata Sons Chairman N Chandrasekaran said that the Tata group is aiming to bring in the latest technology in Air India in the next 9-12 months and their aim is to make Air India a truly iconic airline that every Indian will be proud of.

"To make Air India a globally competitive airline requires a lot of work. In the last 12 months, we have put together a strong team, and are focusing on upgrading all human resources in the airline. We are working to refurbish our current fleet to be in power with global standards," Chandrasekaran said.

On the future of Maharaja Mascot, Campbell Wilson, Air India CEO & MD, said that the rumour of Maharaja's death is greatly exaggerated and he will live on.

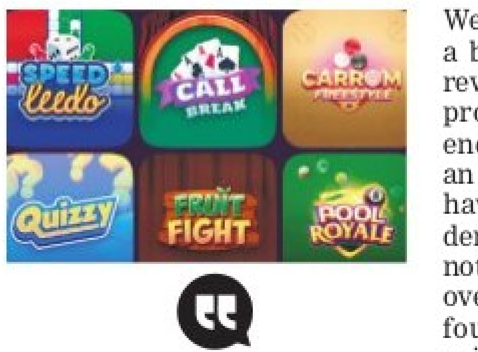
"Our transformative new brand reflects an ambition to make Air India a world-class airline serving guests from around the globe, and that represents a new India proudly on the global stage… We are in the midst of a total transformation to reimagine the role of India's flagship airline" said Wilson.

The new logo is designed in partnership with the London-based brand transformation company, FutureBrand. Travellers will begin to see the new logo from December 2023, when Air India's first Airbus A350 enters the fleet in the new livery.

The rebranding of Air India follows Tata Sons' complete acquisition of Air India, which was completed in January 2022. Since then, Tata has initiated the merger of its four airlines into two, ordered 470 planes and announced investing millions of dollars to refurbish its existing fleet.

GST on online gaming: Hike's Rush Gaming lays off about 22% employees

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @Bengaluru



Business is in its best shape ever. This 400% rise in GST is a bazooka pointed at us. We'll need to absorb some of it

Kavin Bharti Mittal, Hike founder and chief executive officer

AFTER the Mobile Premier League (MPL) laid off 50% or about 350 people due to 28% GST on online real-money games, Hike's Rush Gaming Universe (RGU) has now reduced its workforce by 22% or 55 people.

Of 55 people, which it has let go of, 24 are not full-timers. Hike founder and CEO Kavin Bharti Mittal said in a statement, "Business is in its best shape ever. This 400% rise in GST is a bazooka pointed at us. We'll need to absorb some of it."

As per Tracxn report, Hike has so far raised $261 million in equity funding and its investors include Tencent, Tiger Global Management, Binny Bansal, Cred founder Kunal Shah and Tribe Capital, among others. It pivoted to real-money gaming in 2021.

Recently, in a written reply in Rajya Sabha, finance minister Nirmala Sitharaman said 28% GST on full face value of supplies in casinos, race courses and online gaming will result in higher revenues.

Due to 28% GST, small-size gaming start-up Quizy announced it will shut down the business. "The introduction of a 28% GST rate on entry fees further compounded our woes and murdered the industry finally. We had always strived to strike a balance between generating revenue for the government and providing an enjoyable experience for our players. However, an abrupt rise in GST rate would have placed an undue tax burden on the industry, affecting not just our profitability but also overall gaming ecosystem," cofounder Sachin Yadav, Quizy said in a LinkedIn post.

He asked policymakers and industry stakeholders to engage in dialogue and collaboration to strike a balance that supports innovation, economic growth, and responsible gaming.

Early this week, industry body All India Gaming Federation (AIGF) said it believes the decision by the GST Council of valuation on deposits will severely impact the sector and result in a situation where a majority of players, including MSMEs will no longer be able to survive in the face of increased tax liability of 400-500%.

Centre to launch national portal for online drug sale

MONIKA YADAV @New Delhi

IN a bid to check the illegal sale of prescription drugs by e-pharmacies and e-commerce platforms, and to address the potential dangers such as data misuse, the Centre plans to launch a national portal for online sale of medicines, a top government official told this newspaper.

The portal will be authentic, safe and no sale will be processed without verification. Doctors will need to register on the site to give online prescriptions with which patients can buy medicines, the official added.

With this, the government aims to mitigate risks such as sale of counterfeit medicines, addictive narcotics, and potential national security concerns.

During a meeting with major e-pharma players on Wednesday, Union health minister Mansukh Mandaviya expressed concerns about the existing model of selling drugs online, highlighting the need for improved approaches. Major companies including Tata1mg, Netmeds, Amazon, Flipkart, Practo, Apollo, and PharmEasy were present at this meeting.

"The government is looking at a Zomato-Swiggy model for medicine delivery. This would involve delivery personnel collecting medicines from physical stores and delivering them to customers, enhancing the efficiency and security of the process," said the official cited above.

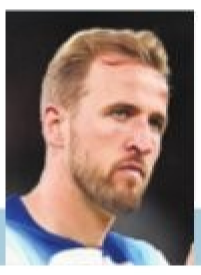
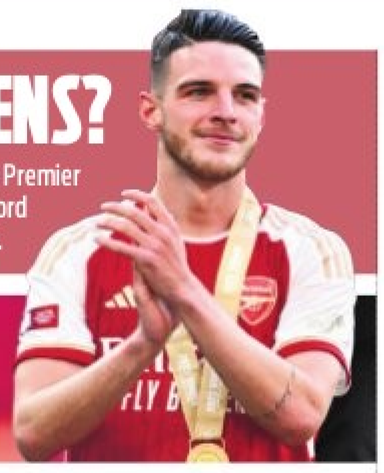
Bayern reach deal with Spurs to sign Kane: Reports



Bayern Munich have reached an agreement to sign England captain Harry Kane from Tottenham, for a Bundesliga record fee of more than 100 million euros, reports said. Talks between the two clubs had been ongoing for several weeks, as Tottenham chairman Daniel Levy pushed for a higher fee, aware that Kane could leave on a free at the end of his deal in 2024.

WHO CAN STOP CITIZENS?

Manchester City travel to Burnley on Friday as the new Premier League season begins. City will be bidding to win a record fourth straight top-flight crown. A look at the fixtures.



BURNLEY TEST FOR CITY

City are still riding the wave of euphoria from the end of last season as they added the club's first ever Champions League to go with Premier League and FA Cup glory. The summer has not been without its challenges for Pep Guardiola as captain Ilkay Gundogan and forward Riyad Mahrez departed. City have also had to fight to retain Kyle Walker and Bernardo Silva, while Croatian duo Mateo Kovacic and Josko Gvardiol are the only two new arrivals so far. Guardiola's opposite number in the dugout already has a statue outside the Etihad from his playing days, but Vincent Kompany has quickly established himself as one of the brightest coaching talents on the continent. Inspired by Guardiola, Kompany has transformed Burnley into a side that dominate the ball. City, who lost against Arsenal in the Community Shield, will be mindful of that.

GUNNING FOR GLORY

Arsenal have led the way by spending more than £200 million on Declan Rice, Kai Havertz and Jurrien Timber as they aim to topple Manchester City. Rice's — who cost a record fee that could rise to £105 million — determination to join Mikel Arteta's men despite reported interest from City was another indication that Arsenal are a team on the up. With that fee comes great expectations for Rice to become the difference-maker in ending a 20-year wait to bring the Premier League title back to north London. The Gunners will be expected to get off to a flier at home to Nottingham Forest on Saturday.

SUPER SUNDAY

The biggest fixture of the opening week is the clash between Chelsea and Liverpool. Optimism around Chelsea's positive performances in pre-season under new boss Mauricio Pochettino has been punctured by the news that Christopher Nkunku will be sidelined for up to four months after knee surgery. Pochettino's time in charge gets off to a testing start when Liverpool visit looking to put their own disappointment from last season behind them. But all is also not well at Anfield with fans frustrated at the lack of new arrivals. Alexis Mac Allister and Dominik Szoboszlai are Jurgen Klopp's only two new signings.

UNITED FACE WOLVES

Manchester United face a Wolves side who were left without a manager just three days before the season begins. Julen Lopetegui stepped down on Tuesday after becoming disillusioned with the lack of resources to spend in the transfer market. Gary O'Neil has stepped into the hot seat at Molineux tasked with repeating his success in keeping Bournemouth up against the odds last season. United will expect to get off to a winning start at Old Trafford, but the home crowd will have to wait for their first sight of new striker Rasmus Hojlund.

FIXTURES

Friday: Burnley vs Manchester City (12:30 AM - Saturday IST)

Saturday: (7:30 pm unless specified): Arsenal vs Nottingham Forest (5 pm), Bournemouth v West Ham, Brighton v Luton, Everton v Fulham, Sheffield United v Crystal Palace (all 1400), Newcastle v Aston Villa (10 pm)

Sunday: Brentford v Tottenham (6:30 pm), Chelsea v Liverpool (9 pm)

Monday: Manchester United vs Wolves (12:30 am - Tuesday IST)

Harmanpreet, India's Man Friday

Captain leading from front with his dead-ball prowess & his ability to read the game

SWAROOP SWAMINATHAN @Chennai

BY design, Harmanpreet Singh is the public face of the men's hockey side. That's not just because he's the skipper. It's also because he's the first when it comes to drag-flicking. Dial H for Harman whenever India gets a penalty corner. Sometimes, like against New Zealand at the World Cup, it doesn't work out. At the Kalinga Stadium in January, Singh got opportunities to win it in normal time but couldn't convert.

In the post-match press conference, the defender sounded downcast, trying to explain why his conversion rates had taken a downturn. "Of course, everyone is talking about penalty corner conversion," he had said then. "I am trying but it is not coming off. Obviously our PC conversion (was off)…" It was a reminder that unlike some of the other elite teams, India relied on their No. 1 drag-flicker to deliver the goods.

Cut to seven months later and Chennai is proving to be a balm of sorts for Harmanpreet. He's not just the tournament's leading goal-scorer (seven, three more than Malaysia's Firhan Ashari) at this stage but has also scored all of his goals from drag-flicks.

In the recent past, most of the press conferences involving Harmanpreet have revolved around asking him to explain lesser than ideal conversion rates. It was a measure of how good his tournament has been that after the match against Pakistan, he was asked about the positive conversion rate. "No, that is my responsibility," he said when asked if it felt nice to not answer questions around not scoring enough from penalty corners. "You people have the right to ask those questions. I will keep trying my best."

He was equally measured when directly asked about his own role in the commanding 4-0 win over the Green Shirts. "Our forwards created so many chances," he said. "They have responsibilities to take shots, score goals, and win PCs. Even after that, there's the push, the stop, only after that do I come into play as a flicker."

The ironic thing in all of this is that Harmanpreet's primary role in this side is to marshall the troops at the back. Playing as the right back in this set-up, his other — day — job is to stop the oxygen at the source whenever an opposition attack develops before dribbling on the outside or spraying passes in field (like his pass to S Karthi's opening goal against Malaysia in a 5-0 rout). It's in this role that the 27-year-old truly excels in.

Today's matches: Pakistan v China | 3.30 pm; Malaysia v Korea| 6pm; India v Japan| 8.30 pm

India have had multiple coaches since 2018 and they have all come in with their own template of how to play hockey. While they have chopped and changed, the defender remains one of the first names on the team sheet; that's because of the way he reads the game. Sure, it helps to be a good drag-flicker but the awareness he brings to his day job is why all of Harendra Singh, Sjoerd Marijne, Graham Reid and, now, Craig Fulton, have put him there.

He's also the ideal team man. He has seemingly adopted Karthi like his son (the Tamil Nadu forward has spoken about his admiration for the skipper multiple times). It reflects in the way he shares his responsibilities from dead-ball situations. He may be the lead drag-flicker but if the coaching staff feel there's somebody else who should have a crack, Harman steps aside. "It's planned," Fulton said. "That happens behind the scenes. We do a lot of study on it. Not going to tell you everything. There's a lot of work that goes into it," the South African said when speaking about how they decide which short-corner will be taken by whom.

For drag-flickers, their work outside drag-flicks is seldom analysed. That's just the nature of the work. While India will need Harmanpreet the drag-flicking exponent to retain his magic over the next two months till the Asiad, his work at the back is equally important.

His watch will continue against Japan in the semifinal on Friday.

Wrestlers object to Sanjay's candidature for top WFI post

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Chennai

IN their desperate bid to garner support for their presidential candidate, Anita Sheoran, protesting wrestlers including Bajrang Punia on Thursday apparently met sports minister Anurag Thakur raising objection over the candidature of Sanjay Kumar Singh for the top post. Sanjay is considered to be a close aide of the sidelined president of the Wrestling Federation of India Brij Bhushan Sharan Singh. Wrestler Anita, on the other hand, is former Commonwealth Games gold medallist and a witness in the case of sexual harassment against Brij Bhushan.

The wrestlers including Bajrang, Vinesh Phogat and Sakshi Malik had announced on Wednesday night that they will address a press conference at Raj Ghat in New Delhi on Thursday afternoon but was forced to shelve their plan as prohibitory orders under section 144 of the CrPC were been clamped in the area in the wake of the Independence Day. Given the situation, the faction led by Brij Bhushan enjoys the support of at least 20 out of 25 state units eligible to vote. Two representatives from each association will be eligible to cast a vote each during the polling scheduled on August 12. "The wrestlers met sports minister Anurag Thakur. The minister has apparently assured them of a meeting with home minister Amit Shah. These wrestlers don't want the panel led by Brij Bhushan to win the election, especially the presidential candidate. They were promised in the past that no one from Brij Bhushan's family will contest," a source tracking the development told this daily. Sources also informed that the wrestlers spoke to two-time Olympic medallist Sushil Kumar seeking his support.

It was also learnt that the faction being supported by wrestlers also held a meeting with the sports minister at his residence late at night and one of the candidates informed that they are being asked to be there.

Meanwhile, representatives from a few state units backing Brij Bhushan reached the national capital on Thursday while the remaining are expected to arrive by Friday. "We will be staying at the same hotel where we stayed before filing nominations. At least 20 units are with Brij Bhushan and that means a clean sweep in the election," said another source.

It is also learnt that ID Nanavati, who is contesting for the post of senior vice president is expected to return to the country on Friday. He has been out of the country for quite some time. The president of the Gujarat Association is supporting the Uttar Pradesh strongman. Devender Kadyan is the candidate for the post from another faction.

Hearing on Haryana dispute

A hearing is scheduled at the Punjab and Haryana High Court on a plea filed by the rival faction challenging voting rights given to Rakesh Singh (secretary) and Rohtash Singh (president) from the Haryana unit. While Rakesh is supporting Brij Bhushan, Rohtash has allegedly switched allegiance. The court has earlier stayed the voting rights given to the duo. "The order is expected tomorrow (Friday). I am in Chandigarh for the hearing and will leave for Delhi once the order is pronounced," said Rakesh. It is being said if voting rights are taken away then it can also affect the nominations of a few candidates from the Brij Bhushan camp.

Rani named U17 coach, former captain says still some hockey left

SWAROOP SWAMINATHAN @Chennai

RANI Rampal has not been given any answer by Hockey India (HI) with regards to her continued non-selection in the women's team. At an HI announcement press conference -- the federation has decided to start two U-17 national teams – Rampal's name as chief coach of the girls programme raised eyebrows. Did this mean she had retired?

"Whatever happened with me wasn't right in the last two years," she said. "I came back from an injury, was the top-scorer at the National Games but wasn't picked. The best person who can answer this is the Chief Coach (Janneke Schopmann) or the selectors because I don't know the answer. I am not retiring since I know I still have more to give to the sport as a player. I have this thing in me to not give up. If I had to, I'd have given up after the Olympics. I accepted this since it is a short term programme that could be converted into a long-term project. Initially, it's a 45-day camp." Ever since Schopmann took over from Sjoerd Marijne, the former captain has been in and out of the team. She last played for the side in January.

> I am not retiring since I know I still have more to give to the sport as a player. I have this thing in me to not give up. If I had to, I'd have given up after the Olympics.
> Rani Rampal

When the status of Rampal's continued non-selection was put to Dilip Tirkey, HI president, who was also at the announcement press conference, he said they don't interfere in selection policies. "We can understand Rani isn't in the team and we have asked the coach and selectors why such a player isn't included. When a team is selected, president and secretary don't interfere. It's the responsibility of the selectors and coach. I have spoken to Rani, who was very upset. We can't share all the details but after talking to her, we proposed her the offer to become a coach."

Coming to the announcement part, HI said they were creating the two teams to ensure the country's grassroots programmes is well stocked. The boys programme will be handled by former men's captain, Sardar Singh. He will continue to act as one of the selectors for the senior side. Initially, the 45-day programme will be a book-ended by a tour to Europe.

Interestingly, the way international hockey is structured, there isn't too many sub junior competitions, or teams. But Tirkey maintained that there are plans in the pipeline to get India's U17 face their counterparts from Belgium and Netherlands apart from club sides.

Renovation works ahead of ODI WC

AGENCIES @Bengaluru

AHEAD of the ICC T20 World Cup 2023, the Karnataka State Cricket Association (KSCA) has undertaken the renovation works that are essential prior to the quadrennial extravaganza that is being played across October and November. The M Chinnaswamy Stadium will host five matches during the World Cup.

"After the ICC team's inspection a few days back, we have started the required renovation works such as refurbishing the stands, placing some new seats and renewing the toilets in the stadium. "Our aim is to arrange the best possible facilities in the stadium, and as it is we have top-class facilities here at the venue," said Raghuram Bhatt, the KSCA president, on Thursday after a function to unveil the KSCA Maharaja Trophy T20 trophy.

Bengaluru will host Australia vs Pakistan (October 20), England vs Sri Lanka (October 26), New Zealand vs Pakistan (November 4), New Zealand vs Sri Lanka (November 9) and India vs Netherlands (November 12) matches during the World Cup. The ICC had recently sent an inspection team to Bengaluru to check on the preparations. While expressing satisfaction over the venue's match readiness, the ICC members had suggested some minor tweaks to the existing facilities.

Apart from the World Cup, the KSCA will have their hands full in the coming months as several international and national teams will descend in the city for off-season training. The WPL team UP Warriorz completed a week-long training in the city, and the state teams of Gujarat, Baroda and Chhattisgarh will arrive here for practice matches.

Real rocked by injury to goalkeeper Courtois

MADRID: Real Madrid suffered a huge blow on the eve of the new La Liga season with goalkeeper Thibaut Courtois rupturing the anterior cruciate ligament in his left knee during training on Thursday. The 31-year-old faces a lengthy spell on the sidelines and will undergo surgery in the coming days, his club said.

Chennaiyin FC beat Hyderabad FC

GUWAHATI: Chennaiyin FC got the better of Hyderabad FC 3-1 in the southern derby of the Durand Cup football tournament here on Thursday. Chennaiyin, thus, took the top spot in the Group E. Jordan Murray (46th minute), Connor Shields (15') and an own goal from Alex Saji (6') lifted Chennaiyin.

914 samples collected by NADA in June, July

NEW DELHI: The National Anti-Doping Agency collected more than 900 dope samples from athletes, with a whopping 199 coming from track and field, in June and July ahead of the Asian Games. The NADA collected 914 samples, mostly urine, from June 1 to July 31, according to the data released by NADA on Thursday.

IOC backs Randhir to lead OCA until review

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Chennai

IN a recent directive, the International Olympic Committee has informed Olympic Council of Asia that the suspended president and any official appointed after the election will not have a role in the functioning of the body. In a letter, dated August 9, to the OCA acting president Randhir Singh, Pâquerette Girard Zappelli, IOC Chief Ethics and Compliance Officer, wrote that he and James McLeod, IOC Director for NOC Relations, Olympic Solidarity and Olympism 365, would carry out the elections process review.

"Following the IOC Executive Board's decision, the OCA's elections process review will be jointly carried out by Mr McLeod and myself in my capacity as IOC Chief Ethics and Compliance Officer (IOC CECO)," said the letter. The IOC decided to not recognise the election of Sheikh Talal Al-Sabah as OCA chief last month. The IOC said that former Indian Olympic Association secretary general and IOC honorary member, Randhir Singh, to continue as acting president. "Until the outcome of the above-mentioned review is finalised, the two candidates for the presidential election shall not be involved in any activities which might influence the ongoing OCA's elections review process or give the perception thereof," said the letter.

The IOC also said that officials appointed after elections should not be involved. "In addition, as a consequence of the non-recognition by the IOC of the elections which took place on 8 July 2023, the limitations mentioned above apply to all the persons appointed in any positions within the OCA after this date. We are confident that, as OCA acting president, you will find solutions to ensure that the OCA's daily activities are conducted within the framework of the OCA's Constitution."

WWC: Disaster to dynasty beaters, Japan's 2011 success

KALYANI MANGALE @Chennai

IN March 2011, Japan and the world witnessed a tragedy. The most powerful earthquake ever recorded in Japan shook the world. The powerful Tsunami that followed the worst fears regarding the Fukushima Daiichi Nuclear Power Plant came true triggering the nuclear meltdown. Almost 15,000 innocent people lost their lives. Homare Sawa-led national football side had to concentrate on their game amidst this chaos and pain at home.

Japan women pulled off a miraculous performance in 2011

Today's matches (Q/Fs)

Spain vs Netherlands | 6:30 am;
Japan vs Sweden | 1 pm.

Four months away from the event in Germany, the national squad even considered skipping the World Cup, but decided to go. Even after finishing second in the group stage, their head coach, Norio Sasaki, wouldn't let the team forget what was at stake. Before their clash against two-time champions Germany in the quarterfinal, he showed them slide-show images of the earthquake and tsunami. "They touched us deep in our souls," Miyama was quoted as saying. Moved by the photos, Japan shocked Germany to reach the semifinal. In Frankfurt, 45,000 fans witnessed a miracle when Japan knocked Sweden out in the semifinal. "We are still recovering from the disaster. There were so many victims in the area which was devastated. Even little things like a win can give people courage and hope," Sasaki said (fifa.com). With that win against Sweden, Japan became the second Asian nation to reach the final after China's success in 1999.

The other commonality between China and Japan at the World Cup final in 2011? Their opponent, The United States of America. The giants of women's football. In the final, USA got the lead with the goal from Alex Morgan in the 69th minute, but Miyama's awareness in front of the goalpost gave Japan an equaliser and took the match to extra time. Two goals each in the extra time took the drama to penalty shootout. The Japanese goalkeeper, Ayumi Kaihori, stood up like a wall to save three penalties. When Saki Kumagai went past the defense of the American goalkeeper, Hope Solo, Japan had achieved the unthinkable. Coach Sasaki's words came true. His team gave Japan their first-ever FIFA World Cup. "We fought for ourselves and for Japan. For some strange reason, I just didn't feel like we could lose. Maybe we felt this way because Japan was giving us power," emotional Homare Sawa later told CNN.

Japan's rise not just helped them win the World Cup, but it lifted the country as well.
